Sample of Exchange Programs

You pay in-state tuition and fees while attending one of our more than eighty partner universities. These programs offer you a more independent experience and are generally for a semester or year.

Prague, Czech Republic
Czech University of Life Science

Czech University of Life Sciences (CULS) has more than 1,000 international students from 86 countries. CULS has mostly business and agriculture courses. CULS also offers a 6-week summer program that focuses more on Ag Econ courses and some management courses. The summer program has a very structured schedule at the university that includes excursions and courses to benefit the student’s time in Prague.

Santa Maria, Brazil
Federal University of Santa Maria

Considered the ‘Heart of the State’, Santa Maria, Brazil is a university city, a traditional destination for many international students. It is an outstanding city to live in for its green areas and the beautiful young people who come from every part of the country to study here.

Queretaro, Mexico
ITESM – Queretaro Campus

The Querétaro campus was built in 1974 and now has over 4,500 students! There will be plenty of things to do in this amazing, traditional, and modern megalopolis. Querétaro offers its students a great (safe!) place to study and adventure. Querétaro is rated as Mexico’s second safest city, and its cleanest city.

Giessen, Germany
Justus Liebig University

Justus Liebig University Giessen (JLU Giessen, JLU, or Giessen) was Kansas State’s first reciprocal agreement for studying abroad, signed in 1960. Giessen is among the oldest institutions of higher educations in the German-speaking world. It was originally founded in 1607 and eventually led the city of Giessen to be the most student-dominated city in Germany.

Ghent, Belgium
University of Ghent

In comparison with other major universities, Ghent University (Universiteit Gent in Dutch) is relatively young, as it was inaugurated as an institution on October 9, 1817. U Gent distinguishes itself as a socially committed and pluralistic university in a broad international perspective.

Graz, Austria
University of Graz

For more than 400 years, the University of Graz has been an important influence on the character of the life and image of the Styrian capital. One of the oldest universities in Central Europe, Graz strives on scholarly tradition and commitment to students.

Toulouse, France
Ecole Superieure d'Agriculture, Purpan
Ecole Superieure d’Agriculture, Purpan (El Purpan), a private Jesuit college founded in 1919, has maintained a spirit of co-operation directly with the agricultural environment. It is administered by a non-profit making council and depends on the Ministry of Agriculture.

Dublin, Ireland
University College Dublin
With almost 25,000 students, Dublin has a vibrant university that can meet anyone’s desires. The campus is an attractively landscaped complex of modern architectural buildings, accommodating most of the student residences and numerous leisure and sporting facilities.

Pretoria, South Africa
University of Pretoria
UP has fantastic rankings noting it as one of the best universities in South Africa. With a rich history and strong academic background, UP is also a strong contender for being one of the best universities in all of Africa.

Sydney, Australia
University of Sydney
The University of Sydney, founded in 1850, has built an international reputation for its outstanding teaching and as a center of research excellence. It was the first founded and is one of the largest universities in Australia, with over 47,000 students, including more than 9,000 international students from more than 100 different countries.

Perth, Australia
University of Western Australia
The University of Western Australia ranks 110th in the highly respected Shanghai-Jiao Tong University’s Academic Ranking of World Universities. UWA’s location is on the beautiful Swan River in the heart of Perth’s city. The city of Perth offers an enviable combination of urban sophistication and international flavor and has a rich lifestyle and cultural mix.

Brisbane, Australia
University of Queensland
Founded in 1910, The University of Queensland (UQ) is one of Australia’s premier learning and research institutions. UQ’s main campus is located in the picturesque inner-city suburb of St Lucia. UQ is bounded by the Brisbane River on three sides, and less than 5 miles from Brisbane’s vibrant city heart.
