Sample of Exchange Programs

You pay in-state tuition and fees while attending one of our more than eighty partner universities. These programs offer you a more independent experience and are generally for a semester or year.

Istanbul, Turkey
Bogazici University
This was one of the first American colleges outside of the United States. BU is one of the most prominent educational institutions in Turkey. The university thrives in academics and is a fantastic place for students to spend a semester or an academic year abroad. The classes are all taught in English, so knowing another language is not at all necessary.

Canberra, Australia
University of Canberra
The University of Canberra (UC) has a vivid campus with many options for students wanting to study abroad. The campus is beautifully situated between the heart of the nation’s capital and the beauty of Australia bush land and native wildlife. The university offers quality, career oriented programs with a strong focus on academic excellence.

Nicosia, Cyprus
University of Cyprus
The University of Cyprus (UC) was first established in 1989, admitting students for the first time in 1992. Although UC has been accepting students for just over 20 years, it has managed to become the leading educational institution in Cyprus.

Melbourne, Australia
Deakin University - Melbourne-Burwood Campus
The Melbourne-Burwood campus is located in the eastern suburbs of Melbourne, alongside Gardiner’s Creek parklands and close to the natural bush land of Wattle Park. Overall, Melbourne is a high-lifestyle city, ranked high as one of the most livable cities in the world.

Various Locations
MAUI
The MAUI Program enables students from member universities to study at one of the other member institutions for a semester or academic year. Each student pays tuition to his or her home university and takes regular classes at the partner institution. Acceptance is a nomination process, sometimes requiring up to 1 year at most limited locations. Apply Early!

Tokmok, Kyrgyzstan
International University of Central Asia
The International University of Central Asia (IUCA) first opened in August 2008 and attained its university status the year following. IUCA is a small developing school, great for students who need smaller classes and individualized attention.
