Sample of Exchange Programs

You pay in-state tuition and fees while attending one of our more than eighty partner universities. These programs offer you a more independent experience and are generally for a semester or year.

Coburg, Germany
Coburg University of Applied Sciences
Unlike at bigger universities throughout the world, you will not need binoculars in order to see your professor at Coburg Univer-sity of Applied Sciences and Arts. Coburg offers a top-class education with personal service. The size allows for a great student-professor ratio and enables you to encounter an open ear any-where on campus. There is a German language requirement.

Frankfurt (Oder), Germany
Europa-Universität Viadrina
Since building this foundation as a European University, Viadrina has strictly adhered to its concept of bringing young people together from every corner of the world. This concept has proven to be successful: Viadrina has grown to become a lively, highly regarded member in the community of German and European universities. Although it is one of the smallest universities in Germany, it competes for great honors and a remarkable reputation. There is a German language requirement.

Giessen, Germany
Justus Liebig University
Justus Liebig University Giessen (JLU Giessen, JLU, or Giessen) was Kansas State’s first reciprocal agreement for studying abroad, signed in 1960. Giessen is among the oldest institutions of higher educations in the German-speaking world. It was originally founded in 1607 and eventually led the city of Giessen to be the most student-dominated city in Germany. There is a German language requirement.

Leipzig, Germany
MAUI - Universität Leipzig
The Universität Leipzig is located in Leipzig, Germany. With about 28,500 students, U Leipzig is the second oldest university in Germany. Around 10% of the university’s population is of foreign students from all over the world. The university has a great range of schooling and has great pride in the strength of their university. There is a German language requirement.

Leipzig, Germany
MAUI - Ruhr Universität Bochum
RUB is situated on the southern hills of Bochum and was founded in 1962. Being a fairly new university, RUB has still successfully been recognized for their excellence. There is a German language requirement.

Friedrichshafen, Germany
Zeppelin University
Zeppelin University (ZU) is located in Friedrichshafen, which is beautifully at Lake Constance, one of Germany's top holiday regions. International students have appreciated the small size of the university and the small sizes of the classes. There is a German language requirement.

Sample of Program Providers
Program providers organize study abroad programs that offer additional assistance throughout your international experience. These programs are offered for various lengths of time during the year and provide a more structured experience, often with cultural activities and excursions.
