Copenhagen, Denmark
Danish Institute for Study Abroad (DIS)
Copenhagen offers culture, entertainment, cafes, transportation, and a small-town atmosphere. DIS is a specialized program designed for students majoring in architecture, interior design, interior architecture, urban design, landscape architecture, and graphic design. The studio core courses and study tours are intended to expand students' professional skills and knowledge through interaction with Danish architects and designers; increase familiarity with contemporary Danish, Scandinavian, and European architecture, design, and theory; and enable recognition and the capacity to analyze the effects of cultural, economic, and political life on architecture and design and vice versa. All APDesign students are eligible to participate.

Dessau, Germany
Dessau International Architecture (DIA)
Dessau is an ancient city that sits on a massive cliff of tufa overlooking a valley that has been occupied since the end of the 5th century BCE. A major architectural feature of the city is the Duomo, a beautiful and important religious building that has been part of the fabric of the community for seven centuries. Centro Studi is located in the Piazza del Popolo and is surrounded by buildings representative of many historical epochs. Students live in apartments in the historical city center and are able to take advantage of the many cultural opportunities of the city and surrounding region. Excellent transportation provides easy access to cities such as Rome and Florence and smaller towns such as Arezzo, Assisi, and Perugia.
