Sydney, Australia
University of Sydney
$16,805.00*

Situated in one of Australia's most dynamic cities, the world-renowned University of Sydney offers you the opportunity to study economics and many other fields while living at the cutting edge of Australian culture. A minimum 3.0 GPA is required.

Prague, Czech Republic
University of Economics, Prague
$10,631.00*

The University of Economics, located in the picturesque and affordable Czech capital, features an array of courses in business and economics as well as a "buddy system" that pairs up K-State students with Czech counterparts.

Friedrichshafen, Germany
Zeil University
$12,581.00*

The scenic Zeil University is nestled in the German Alps near Lake Constance, which also borders Switzerland and Austria. Knowledge of German is recommended, but not required, as many economics courses are taught in English.

Maynooth, Ireland
National University of Ireland, Maynooth
$12,468.00*

Only an hour from the Irish capital of Dublin and at the heart of a university town, the National University of Ireland, Maynooth offers a wide selection of economics and general education courses. A minimum 3.0 GPA is required.

Queretaro, Mexico
ITESM Queretaro
$9,111.00*

With campuses across Mexico, ITESM is ranked one of the best institutions in the country. The campus in Queretaro, one of the wealthiest cities in Mexico, offers some economics courses in English, but familiarity with Spanish is recommended.

Seoul, South Korea
Kyung Hee University
$9,805.00*

Kyung Hee University is a prestigious Korean institution with many English-language courses in economics and other arts & sciences fields. Its location in Seoul ensures that you will be at the heart of Korean life and culture.

Madrid, Spain
Universidad Carlos III de Madrid
$10,151.00*

Universidad Carlos III de Madrid features one of the top fifty best-ranked economics departments in the world. Some courses are taught in English, but many more are in Spanish, so you are encouraged to have some Spanish-language background.

Vaixa, Sweden
Linnaeus University
$10,489.00*

Linnaeus University offers many courses taught in English, including financial markets and consumerism. The charming city of Vaixa is set among forests and fountains and is accessible to many parts of Scandinavia.

Istanbul, Turkey
Boğaziçi University
$13,100.00*

An American founded Boğaziçi University in 1863 as an English-speaking institution. Today, all of its diverse selection of courses for its 10,000 students are in English. Istanbul is one of the most historic and multicultural cities in the world.

Hatfield, England, United Kingdom

Internships and Service Learning Programs
Get out of the classroom! Internships and service-learning programs abroad allow you to deepen your immersion in another culture or language as well as provide hands-on experience that can help distinguish you on the job market.

eLAP by ISA
Combine an internship with study abroad by interning before, during, or after a study abroad program. Participants can also intern independently from study abroad or participate in a volunteer group project. Choose a program ranging from 4 to 12 weeks during a semester, summer or intensive month. Earning academic credit is also a possibility with some programs. For prices and more information, visit stud yabroad.com/elap/.

World Endeavors
World Endeavors helps participants find internships that best fit their personal and professional goals. Programs are usually a minimum of 2 or 3 months long, and are offered in Africa, Asia, Australia and the Pacific, Europe, and Latin America. Interns also have the opportunity to earn academic credit upon completing an internship. For the most current program details, visit www.worldendeavors.com.

“I walk away from my year in Japan with not only a better command of the Japanese language, but also new friendships and memories that I will never forget.”
