Exchange Programs

Exchange programs allow students to pay in-state tuition and fees for courses taken at universities abroad.

Melbourne, Australia ♦
Deakin University
Deakin University offers education majors a full complement of specialized and general education courses. Set in Melbourne, Australia’s second largest city and rated one of the world’s most livable cities, the campus allows easy access to beaches and many of the country’s cultural institutions.

$13,151.00*

Puebla, Mexico ♦
Universidad Popular Autonoma del Estado de Puebla (UPAEP)
UPAEP’s urban campus provides a full range of general education courses as well as opportunities for service-learning that unites the campus with the local community. You must take some Spanish courses or at least have a basic understanding of Spanish to enroll.

$9,276.00*

Brno, Czech Republic ♦
Masaryk University
Located in the beautiful Moravian region of the Czech Republic, Masaryk University is one of Central Europe’s best institutions of higher learning. If you’re interested in general arts & sciences coursework, you’ll find many options. The surrounding city of Brno is steeped in the history of past kingdoms and empires and features a cheaper cost of living than the nearby Czech capital of Prague.

$10,324.00*

Pretoria, South Africa ♦
University of Pretoria
Established in 1908, the University of Pretoria (UP) is one of the most historic colleges in Africa. Its Faculty of Humanities features many courses for education majors. Located in the administrative capital of South Africa, UP offers access to many cultural institutions and is close to Johannesburg.

$12,681.00*

Clermont-Ferrand, France ♦
Université Blaise Pascal
Université Blaise Pascal is a public school well known for the quality of its teaching and research in all disciplines, including the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. Situated in central France, Clermont-Ferrand is a beautiful, student-filled city just three hours by train from Paris. It’s a very accessible place from which to explore cultural institutions and national parks.

$14,678.00*

Istanbul, Turkey ♦
Bogazici University
An American founded Bogazici University in 1863 as an English-speaking institution. Today, all of its diverse selection of courses for its 10,000 students are in English. With its warm Mediterranean climate and stunning location straddling the continents of Asia and Europe, Istanbul is one of the most historic and multicultural cities in the world—a must-see for any global traveler.

$13,100.00*

Giessen, Germany ♦
Justus Liebig Universität (University of Giessen)
Justus Liebig University’s full complement of courses is similar to that of K-State’s catalog, so education majors can take classes in many general education classes. You must take some German courses prior to enrolling at Giessen or at least have a basic understanding of German, as much of the coursework is taught in German.

$10,349.00*

Hatfield, England, United Kingdom ♦
University of Hertfordshire
An hour from London, the University of Hertfordshire gives you the best of both worlds: you’ll live in an active university town with pubs, cinemas, and shopping centers but have easy access to the bustling of London. Coursework is broad enough to satisfy the needs of most education majors. This exchange program is best for a spring term, since fall term runs until late January.

$12,835.00*

Internships and Service Learning Programs

Get out of the classroom! Internships and service-learning programs abroad allow you to deepen your immersion in another culture or language as well as provide hands-on experience that can help distinguish you on the job market.

eLAP by ISA
Combine an internship with study abroad by interning before, during, or after a study abroad program. Participants can also intern independently from study abroad or participate in a volunteer group project. Choose a program ranging from 4 to 12 weeks during a semester, summer or intensive month. Earning academic credit is also possible with some programs. For prices and more information, visit studiesabroad.com/elap/.

World Endeavors
World Endeavors helps participants find internships that best fit their personal and professional goals. Programs are usually a minimum of 2 or 3 months long, and are offered in Africa, Asia, Australia and the Pacific, Europe, and Latin America. Interns also have the opportunity to earn academic credit upon completing an internship. For the most current program details, visit www.worldendeavors.com.

Program providers are subject to change. For a complete searchable database of all exchange and other programs, visit kstate.edu/studyabroad

*This is one experience I highly suggest EVERY student take a chance with. I can promise your eyes will be opened to amazing new things.”
