Journalism and Mass Communications Abroad

When Should I Go Abroad?

Participating in a study abroad opportunity allows students to experience a different culture and gain a new perspective. Students can take advantage of the numerous programs offered to study abroad during the fall, spring, or summer terms.

Service-Learning Abroad

Studying abroad is an excellent opportunity to engage in service-learning programs. Many programs offer the option to participate in community service projects while abroad. This provides students with the opportunity to contribute to a good cause and gain valuable hands-on experience.

Costs

The cost of studying abroad can vary depending on the program and location. Many programs offer scholarships and financial aid to help offset the costs. Some programs also offer grants and loans to help defray the cost of living abroad.

Funding

Many programs offer scholarships and financial aid to help offset the cost of studying abroad. Students are encouraged to explore all available options, including grants, loans, and work-study opportunities.

Internships and Service Learning Programs

Get out of the classroom! Internships and service-learning programs abroad allow you to deepen your immersion in another culture or language as well as provide hands-on experience that can help distinguish you on the job market.

eLAP by ISA
Combine an internship with study abroad by interning before, during, or after a study abroad program. Participants can also intern independently from study abroad or participate in a volunteer group project. Choose a program ranging from 4 to 12 weeks during a semester, summer, or intensive month. Earning academic credit is also a possibility, with some programs. For prices and more information, visit studiesabroad.com/elap/.

World Endeavors
World Endeavors helps participants find internships that best fit their personal and professional goals. Programs are usually a minimum of 2 or 3 months long, and are offered in Africa, Asia, Australia and the Pacific, Europe, and Latin America. Interns also have the opportunity to earn academic credit upon completing an internship. For the most current program details, visit www.worldendeavors.com.
