Study Abroad
- Enroll in coursework abroad that transfers back to your major or minor.
- Women’s Studies major or minor? See the chart below to learn when you may go abroad.
- Preferred time for your academic program.

Intern Abroad
- Intern abroad to strengthen your resume. Companies value intercultural skills and the ability to speak another language. Interning abroad is often voluntary rather than paid, but financial aid and scholarships may help defray costs if you can credit.
- Proficiency in another language is often unnecessary, so you could study in English, even in non-English speaking places.

Service Learning Abroad
- Give back to the world. Teach English in China, assist women’s shelters in Morocco, or help preserve native species in Costa Rica through a service-learning program.
- Opportunities are available each year toward a semester or academic year program. Scholarships are available each year toward a semester or academic year program. Scholarships are available each year toward a semester or academic year program.

Women’s Studies Abroad

- Conquer Your Academic Advisor
- Meet with your Academic Advisor to discuss coursework before applying for a program abroad.
- Women’s Studies majors and minors are eligible for Federal financial aid and many scholarships if they have completed a specific course.

Funding

- Federal Financial Aid: Available each year toward any K-State Faculty-led study abroad program.
- K-State Global Education Initiative Scholarships: Scholarships are available each year toward a semester or academic year program. Scholarships are available each year toward a semester or academic year program. Scholarships are available each year toward a semester or academic year program.

Women's Studies Abroad

Exchange Programs

Exchange programs allow students to pay in-state tuition and fees for courses taken at universities abroad.

Puebla, Mexico

$9,276.00

Universidad Popular Autonoma del Estado de Puebla (UPAEP)

Filled with picturesque colonial architecture, Puebla is a large, affordable university city and home to UPAEP, one of K-State's newest partners. UPAEP offers courses in a wide variety of disciplines, including women's studies. Most classes are taught in Spanish, so it is highly recommended that you be proficient in the language.

Ifrane, Morocco

$10,324.00

AI Akhawayn University

Founded in 1993, AI Akhawayn University is a public university where tolerance is promoted and expected of students, staff, and faculty. Academic life is rigorous but highly personalized, and all courses—including many in Women's Studies, the social sciences, and the humanities—are taught in English.

Lund, Sweden

$11,266.00

Lund University

One of the top-ranked universities in Europe, Lund University offers strong programs in sociology, women's studies, and the social sciences and humanities, and is only open to students whose primary interest is to study in these fields. Lund is a medium-sized town located in southern Sweden and only twenty-five miles from the Danish capital of Copenhagen.

Hatfield, England, United Kingdom

$12,835.00

University of Herfordshire

An hour from London, the University of Herfordshire gives you the best of both worlds: you'll live in an active university town with pubs, cinemas and shopping centers but have easy access to the bustle of London. Coursework is broad enough to satisfy the needs of most Women's Studies majors. This exchange program is best for a spring term, since fall term runs until late January.

Perth, Australia

$17,151.00

University of Western Australia

The University of Western Australia (UWA) is one of the top universities in the world, with over 24,000 undergraduate and graduate students in all disciplines, including Women's Studies. UWA's location on the beautiful Swan River in the heart of Perth offers an exciting combination of urban life and international flavor.

Regina, Canada

$10,324.00

University of Regina

Explore Regina, Saskatchewan, the home of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and the largest urban park in North America. The University of Regina offers strong academic fields including many courses in Women's Studies, literature, cultural studies, and the humanities.

Legon, Ghana

$10,324.00

University of Ghana

The nationally and internationally recognized University of Ghana is located in Legon, about eight miles northeast of the capital, Accra. The program enables students to enroll in regular courses at the University of Ghana, allowing for the greatest level of cultural immersion. All classes are taught in English, including courses in Women's Studies, literature, social science, and the humanities.

Hirakata City, Japan

$13,181.00

Kansai Gaidai University

Kansai Gaidai University teaches courses in both English and Japanese, so students who have an interest in East Asian studies may take a mixture of Women's Studies and general education courses with beginning language classes in Japanese. The University's setting in Osaka, one of Japan's largest and most modern cities, ensures many opportunities for exciting cultural and historical experiences. A minimum GPA of 3.0 is required.

Classes are taught in English
Classes are taught in other language(s)

I walk away from my year in Japan with not only a better command of the Japanese language, but also new friendships and memories that I will never forget.

-Aaron Voth, Nagasaki, Japan

Program Providers

Program providers organize study, internship, or service-learning programs abroad that offer additional assistance. These programs are offered for various lengths of time during the year and provide a more structured experience, often with cultural activities and excursions.

Internships and Service Learning Programs

Get out of the classroom! Internships and service-learning programs abroad allow you to deepen your immersion in another culture or language as well as provide hands-on experience that can help distinguish you on the job market.

eLAP by ISA

Combine an internship with study abroad by interning before, during, or after a study abroad program. Participants can also intern independently from study abroad or participate in a volunteer group project. Choose a program ranging from 4 to 12 weeks during a semester, summer, or intensive month. Earning academic credit is also a possibility with some programs. For prices and more information, visit studiesabroad.com/elap.

World Endeavors

World Endeavors helps participants find internships that best fit their personal and professional goals. Programs are usually a minimum of 2 or 3 months long, and are offered in Africa, Asia, Australia and the Pacific, Europe, and Latin America. Interns also have the opportunity to earn academic credit upon completing an internship. For the most current program details, visit www.worldendeavors.com.

“...I highly suggest EVERY student take a chance with. I can promise your eyes will be opened to amazing new things.”

-Sonia Gonzalez, Hatfield, England, United Kingdom
