Exchange Programs in Other Languages

Giessen, Germany
Justus Liebig University (University of Giessen)
$9,136.00*
Justus Liebig University is one of the oldest universities in Germany and K-State's first study abroad exchange partner. The institution's full complement of courses is similar to that of K-State, so engineering students can take classes taught in English and German. The historic city of Giessen—founded in the middle ages and damaged extensively in the Second World War—offers both ancient and modern German cultural opportunities.

Querétaro, Mexico
ITESM Querétaro
$8,730.00*
ITESM Querétaro offers a wide variety of classes taught in English, but many more are offered in Spanish, as well. The campus is strong in engineering, agronomy, food science, and biotechnology, and offers classes in the sciences, humanities, and business. Students may be able to arrange internships for credit, as well. Querétaro is rated as one of Mexico's safest cities, is full of cultural opportunities, and provides access to much of central Mexico.

Taipei, Taiwan
National Taiwan University of Science and Technology (NTUST)
$9,608.00*
The National Taiwan University of Science and Technology (NTUST) was established in 1974 as the first higher education institution of its kind and remains one of the best technical universities in Asia. Many courses are taught in English, but most are in Chinese, so students can take Chinese-language courses in addition to engineering technology. The capital of Taiwan, Taipei oversees the Tamsui River as the political, economic, and cultural center of the island nation.
