Psychology

Get Started!

Attend Study Abroad 101 on Wednesdays at 5:30-6:00 or Thursdays at 11:30-noon in 304 Fairchild Hall. If you can’t attend, feel free to visit the Study Abroad Office, open from 8am to 6pm, where you may talk to a Peer Advisor or make an appointment with a Study Abroad Advisor. You may also visit k-state.edu/studyabroad.

Sample of Exchange Programs

You pay in-state tuition and fees while attending one of our more than eighty partner universities. These programs offer you a more independent experience and are generally for a semester or year.

Clermont-Ferrand, France
University Blaise Pascal
Blaise Pascal University is a public school well-known for the quality of its teaching and research. The university also has a long tradition of welcoming foreign students who come particularly to study. Clermont-Ferrand is a beautiful city located in a central position in France. Just three hours by train from Paris and Montpellier, the student city is surrounded with smiling faces. There is a French language requirement.

Istanbul, Turkey
Bogazici University
This was one of the first American colleges outside of the United States. BU is one of the most prominent educational institutions in Turkey. The university thrives in academics and is a fantastic place for students to spend a semester or an academic year abroad. The classes are all taught in English, so knowing another language is not at all necessary.

Canberra, Australia
University of Canberra
The University of Canberra (UC) has a vivid campus with many options for students wanting to study abroad. The campus is beautifully situated between the heart of the nation’s capital and the beauty of Australia bush land and native wildlife. The university offers quality, career oriented programs with a strong focus on academic excellence.

Hatfield, United Kingdom
University of Hertfordshire
Award-winning University of Hertfordshire is an excelling school in the UK. UH is a state university in southern England, located just on the outskirts of London. As a “best of both worlds” university, you get a campus university with excellent teaching, learning, residential and sports facilities in a green and safe environment with close proximity to central London (just half an hour by train!)

Queretaro, Mexico
ITESM – Queretaro Campus
The Querétaro campus was built in 1974 and now has over 4,500 students! There will be plenty of things to do in this amazing, traditional, and modern megalopolis. Querétaro offers its students a great (safe!) place to study and adventure. Querétaro is rated as Mexico's second safest city, and its cleanest city.
Giessen, Germany
Justus Liebig University
Justus Liebig University Giessen (JLU Giessen, JL, or Giessen) was Kansas State's first reciprocal agreement for studying abroad, signed in 1960. Giessen is among the oldest institutions of higher educations in the German-speaking world. It was originally founded in 1607 and eventually led the city of Giessen to be the most student-dominated city in Germany. There is a German language requirement.

Graz, Austria
University of Graz
For more than 400 years, the University of Graz has been an important influence on the character of the life and image of the Styrian capital. One of the oldest universities in Central Europe, Graz strives on scholarly tradition and commitment to students.

Santiago, Chile
Universidad del Pacifico
Pacific University is a private institution of higher education in Chile founded in 1990. With a constant view of the Andes Mountains, Santiago's steady economic growth over the past few decades has transformed it into a modern metropolis. The city is now home to growing theater and restaurant scenes, extensive suburban development, and dozens of shopping centers. There is a Spanish language requirement.

Pretoria, South Africa
University of Pretoria
UP has fantastic rankings noting it as one of the best universities in South Africa. With a rich history and strong academic background, UP is also a strong contender for being one of the best universities in all of Africa.

Puebla, Mexico
Universidad Popular Autonoma del Estado de Puebla
The Universidad Popular Autonoma del Estado de Puebla (known as UPAEP or "ooo pah ehp") is a young, dynamic university in the heart of downtown Puebla. UPAEP has a commitment to improving the international awareness of its graduates and is focusing its efforts on sending more of its students abroad while welcoming programs from other universities to its campus.

Perth, Australia
University of Western Australia
The University of Western Australia ranks 110th in the highly respected Shanghai-Jiao Tong University's Academic Ranking of World Universities. UWA's location is on the beautiful Swan River in the heart of Perth's city. The city of Perth offers an enviable combination of urban sophistication and international flavor and has a rich lifestyle and cultural mix.

Sample of Program Providers
Program providers organize study abroad programs that offer additional assistance throughout your international experience. These programs are offered for various lengths of time during the year and provide a more structured experience, often with cultural activities and excursions.

Academic Programs International (API)
College Consortium for International Studies (CCIS)
Council on International Education Exchange (CIEE)
Danish Institute for Study Abroad (DIS)
Global Links
Institute for Study Abroad (IFSA-Butler)
International Studies Abroad (ISA)
Semester At Sea (SAS)
Study Abroad Italy (SAI)
University Studies Abroad Consortium (USAC)
World Endeavors

For a complete searchable database of all exchange and other programs, visit k-state.edu/studyabroad.

Study Abroad Office | 304 Fairchild Hall, Manhattan, KS 66506 | 785-532-5990 | Fax: 785-532-6550 | overseas@ksu.edu | www.k-state.edu/studyabroad 8/13