

Student Learning Outcomes
M.S. In Kinesiology
CIP Code 31.0505

Students completing the M.S. degree in Kinesiology will:

- 1) develop the necessary skills to promote health and to prevent and manage disease through a greater comprehension of the theory-based role of physical activity
- 2) develop a thorough comprehension of the biophysical or social and behavioral correlates of physical activity, fitness, and health
- 3) develop the necessary conceptual and practical skills necessary to read and evaluate the research literature in the biophysical or social and behavioral specializations of kinesiology
- 4) know, comprehend and apply the scientific method to the conduct of research in the biophysical or social and behavioral specializations of kinesiology
- 5) develop the necessary conceptual and practical skills to conduct research that uniquely contributes to the body of knowledge in the biophysical or social and behavioral specializations of kinesiology
- 6) be able to retrieve and manage information effectively in the examination and communication of information related to the biophysical and social/behavioral specializations of kinesiology
- 7) identify and comprehend issues of diversity related to physical activity, fitness and health
- 8) communicate effectively both orally and in writing