

ARTS, SCIENCES, AND BUSINESS - ASSESSMENT OUTCOMES

Approved by the Faculty February 19, 2003

Bachelor's in Technology Management – Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates of the Technology Management program will:

1. Demonstrate competency in one technical field.
2. Demonstrate the ability to communicate clearly and concisely in written and verbal communications.
3. Develop and demonstrate skills in gathering, sorting, analyzing, and presenting data to assist in solving business problems.
4. Demonstrate a fundamental utilization of computer technology.
5. Gain a broad understanding of human behavior, globalization, cultural and sexual diversity, and ethical awareness.
6. Develop and demonstrate skills in managing and leading people, organizations, and systems.