Schedule Conflicts

The following section will outline recruitment schedule conflicts and will include information that pertains to:

- Band/Classy Cat Camp
- Cheerleading Camp
- Orientation and Enrollment

Band/Classy Cat Camp

Each year, Band/Classy Cat Camp is the same week as Formal Membership Recruitment. Dr. Tracz, the director of bands, and his team are willing to accommodate women wishing to do both Band/Classy Cat Camp and Recruitment. The following should be taken into consideration by students attending both programs.

- Round 1 (Open House): Monday, August 17 and Tuesday, August 18 - There will be a mandatory meeting for band/Classy Cats on Tuesday at 11 a.m. Based on schedules, students may have to miss events at 10:20 a.m. (Event #9) and 11:10 a.m. (Event #10). Sororities will be informed of the reason for a student’s absence from their event. It is at the discretion of the hosting sorority to extend a courtesy invitation to women who are excused from their events.

- Round 2 (Philanthropy): Wednesday, August 19 - Band/Classy Cats participants will be required to attend the evening rehearsal beginning at 6:30 p.m. Women who are invited to events at eight or nine sororities may have to miss events at 7:30 p.m. (Event #9) and 8:25 p.m. (Event #10). The sorority will be informed of the reason for a student’s absence from their event. It is at the discretion of the hosting sorority to extend a courtesy invitation to women who are excused from their events.

- Recruitment Round 3 (Sisterhood & House Tours): Thursday, August 20 - Band/Classy Cats participants will be required to attend the band rehearsal beginning at 1:30 p.m. Women attending more than four events may have to miss events at 1:30 p.m. (Event #4), 2:35 p.m. (Event #5), 3:40 p.m. (Event #6) and 4:45 p.m. (Event #7). The sorority will be informed of the reason for a student’s absence from their event. It is at the discretion of the hosting chapter to extend a courtesy invitation to women who are excused from their events.

- Recruitment Round 4 (Preference): Friday, August 21 - Four hour-long events are planned for today at 8:30 a.m., 9:45 a.m., 11 a.m., and 1:30 p.m. Women will be invited to attend a maximum of 3 events. Women attending Band/Classy Cat Camp will be scheduled for the 8:30 a.m., 9:45 a.m., and 11 a.m. events. They will be finished at noon at the latest. Should they be invited to attend one or two events, they will be finished earlier. Women invited to attend three events will need to work with Dr. Tracz’s staff to seek approval to be late to morning rehearsal. (No guarantees can be made that students will be approved to be tardy or to miss the morning portion of the camp.)

- Bid Night: Friday, August 21 - The Bid Night program begins at 7 p.m. Women need to work with Dr. Tracz’s staff to seek approval to be late or absent from any rehearsals that conflict with this event. (No guarantees can be made that students will be approved to be tardy or to miss this portion of camp.) If you are unable to attend this program, accommodations will be made to notify you of which sorority you have been invited to join.

- Bid Day: Saturday, August 22 - No conflicts are presented by the Sorority Formal Membership Recruitment schedule on Saturday. However, this portion of the schedule is developed by the individual sororities. Sororities are encouraged and willing to allow women to attend band/Classy Cats camp as needed on Saturday.

All women attending both Band/Classy Cats Camp and Recruitment should understand they will have an extremely busy week. It can be done, but each student must own the situation and be respectful and responsible for expectations established by both the Panhellenic Council/Office of Greek Affairs, and the KSU Marching Band/Classy Cats leadership. Leaders of both programs have schedules for the congruent camp and understand the schedules and expectations of their peer program.
The same refund policy exists for women attending both Band/Classy Cats Camp and Sorority Formal Membership Recruitment. No refunds of the registration fee are allowed after August 1, regardless of situation.

All women attending both Band/Classy Cats Camp and Sorority Formal Membership Recruitment should inform both the band/Classy Cats staff at ???????????????? and Panhellenic Council/Greek Affairs staff at greek@k-state.edu no later than August 1.

Cheerleading Camp conflicts
Recruitment staff also works with Coach Ruoff, the K-State Cheerleading coach, to accommodate women wishing to take part in both Cheerleading Camp and Recruitment. The following should be taken into consideration by students attending both programs:

- Recruitment Round 1 (Open House): Monday, August 17 and Tuesday, August 18 - There will be no conflicts in the mandatory Cheerleading Camp and Sorority Formal Membership Recruitment schedules.
- Recruitment Round 2 (Philanthropy): Wednesday, August 19 - Cheerleading Camp participants will be required to attend a team meeting at 8 p.m.
- Recruitment Round 3 (Sisterhood & House Tours): Thursday, August 20 - Cheerleading Camp participants have Boot Camp from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m.
- Recruitment Round 4 (Preference) and Bid Night: Friday, August 21 - Cheerleading Camp participants have Boot Camp from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m.
- Bid Day: Saturday, August 22 - This portion of the schedule is developed by the individual chapter. Chapters are encouraged to release women attending camps as needed on Saturday.

Orientation and Enrollment
If you are scheduled for Orientation and Enrollment during Recruitment, contact John Lantz, coordinator of New Student Services, at jclantz@k-state.edu to review your orientation schedule. Transfer students not enrolled will enroll on Thursday, August 20 and incoming freshman not enrolled will do so on Friday, August 21. Please also contact Greek Affairs staff at greek@k-state.edu no later than August 1. It is the expectation of Greek Affairs and New Student Services that you are attending all mandatory orientation programs to ensure you get important university information and are enrolled in courses for the fall semester.

For students attending orientation on Thursday, August 20, there are mandatory orientation events during the morning. Students invited to more than three events may have to miss events at 8:30 a.m. (Event #1), 9:35 a.m. (Event #2), and 10:50 a.m. (Event #3) based on schedules. The sorority will be informed of the reason for the student’s absence from the event. It is at the discretion of the hosting chapter to extending a courtesy invitation to women who are excused from their events.
For students attending orientation on Friday, August 21, there are mandatory orientation events during the morning. Students attending events on this day will have to miss events scheduled at 8:30 a.m. (Event #1), 9:45 a.m. (Event #2), 11 a.m. (Event #3), and 12:15 p.m. (Event #4). Students with this conflict will be contacted and given further information on how to complete the recruitment process on this date.

Other University Events

Only official university events and illness/emergency are considered excused absences. Women with other university commitments during Recruitment should email Greek Affairs staff at greek@k-state.edu no later than August 1 with details, so that arrangements can be made.
