FAQ

Why attend?

HSLC provides an opportunity for students to begin developing personal leadership skills that can be implemented at their schools.

What are break-out sessions and discussion groups?

Students will have their first opportunity to attend their choice of various Breakout Sessions or Peer Leadership Consulting Sessions with campus faculty and Blue Key Senior Honorary members. Within these groups, topics that concern today's high school leaders will be presented including effective leadership, self-motivation, empowering others, and time management.

During the afternoon, students will attend discussion groups led by members of the Blue Key Senior Honorary. Here, participants will be given time to swap ideas with their peers. These discussion groups are a valuable way for students to learn from the experiences of others and gain new ideas to implement at their school.

Are campus tours available?

Yes, participants will have the opportunity to tour K-State's campus after the closing keynote. The tours are optional but recommended. Each tour will be led by either a member of Blue Key or Quest.

Any other questions

For registration information, call the Non-Credit Programs Registration Office at 785-532-5569 or 800-432-8222. For additional information pertaining to the conference program, contact Derek Larson at 785-532-2494.

Advisor/Sponsor Sessions

Advisors are invited to take part in this leadership conference, as well. Emily Lehning, assistant dean of student life at K-State, will present the fundamentals of student advising and then facilitate an interactive discussion group on teaching leadership at the high school level.

Blue Key Senior Honorary

Blue Key International Honor Society promotes leadership at K-State. Its members, all senior level in college, strengthen faculty and student organizations through a variety of activities and experiences encouraging leadership. It provides growth in its members as well as long-lasting friends and memories.

QUEST Freshman Honorary

Quest, in its sixth year, is a freshman honorary that helps build leadership and provides a behind-the-scenes look at K-State's programs, including athletics, campus government and the arts. Members meet with the university's top student and administrative leaders. Blue Key members mentor and work with Quest members throughout the year to enhance their first-year experience on campus.

Special Assistance

A participant in a conference or non-credit program with a disability who needs accommodations or has special dietary requirements should indicate services needed at the time of registration. If you have further questions please contact Derek Larson at 785-532-2494 or 800-622-2KSU. Early notification is requested to ensure that accommodations can be provided in a timely manner.

Featured Presenters

Dr. Pat Bosco — From his days as student body president to the present time -- more than 30 years later -- Pat Bosco has had a positive impact on K-State. As vice president for student life and dean of students, he leads the student development and retention programs at K-State. Dr. Bosco is the founder and director of the Center for Leadership Development, a private consulting agency. He has more than 30 years experience in leadership training and student group advising.

Three Carpenter — Carpenter is currently the General Manager and Executive Vice President of The Dallas Country Club (DCC) in Dallas, Texas. DCC is one of the oldest and most prestigious clubs in the South and is dedicated to providing members superior services, programs, and facilities. Three received his CCM in 2004 and has been a featured speaker several times at the World Club Managers' Conference. Three Carpenter thinks about Club Management a little differently than most. His exceptional energy, incredible passion, and unique vision make him truly an inspiration to the Industry. Three will keep you on the edge of your seat while he explains how doing things a little differently can bring you success. He will explain how leadership can impact any industry and positively influence others. Additionally, Carpenter will teach you how to be leader and set yourself apart from everyone else.

Cancellation and Refund Policy

If you must cancel a registration, do so as soon as possible. Substitutions are encouraged. A full refund, minus a $6 processing fee, will be made if the Division of Continuing Education receives cancellation by 5 p.m. on November 3, 2009.
