

Brief Vitae

Name: Dorinda J. Lambert

Educational Background:

Ph.D., 1984 in Counseling Psychology, A.P.A. Accredited program; University of Nebraska-Lincoln

M.S., 1977; Major: Human Development/Independent Living Rehabilitation;
Minor: Educational Psychology/Rehabilitation Counseling;

Specialization: Gerontology; University of Nebraska-Lincoln

B.A., 1972; Psychology: Blackburn College, Carlinville, Illinois

Position: Associate Director – Clinical Services, Licensed Psychologist (KS#633)

Membership in professional organizations and affiliations:

Psychology Advisory Committee for the Behavioral Sciences Regulatory Board for Kansas, 1998-2001, 2002-2008

American Psychological Association, Current Member

Division 17, Counseling Psychology, Current Member

Division 29, Psychotherapy, Current Member

Division 35, Psychology of Women, Current Member

Division 51, Society for the Psychological Study of Men and Masculinity, Current Member

Kansas Psychological Association, Current member, Fellow status since 1998

Board Member/APA Council Representative: 1993-1996, 1999-2001

President: 1992

Board Member/Region VI Representative: 1987-1989

Association of Coordination of Counseling Center Clinical Services, founding member 1995 to present

Clinical services delivery,/ agency / university responsibilities and professional involvement:

- At CS since 1985: individual & couples therapy, consultation and assessment, clinical supervision, clinical coordination/administration; liaison with KSU Women's Center
- Campus Committees: member of K-State Threat Management Committee and Student Services Crisis management Committee
- Chair – K-State Campaign for Nonviolence, a presidential campus-wide committee; 2000-2007
- K-State SafeZone Trainer 2003-2007; Coordinator of SafeZone - 2007

Professional Presentations (last 5 years):

- Speaking the Truth: Feminist Violence Prevention on Campus – The Development of the K-State Campaign for Nonviolence, a presentation as part of a panel titled “Teaching Non-violence in the University and Other Community Settings” at the 2006 National Women’s Studies Conference in Oakland, CA, June 15-18, 2006.
- The K-State Problem Identification Rating Scale (K-PIRS) for College Students, a presentation as part of a panel on clinical use of some outcome assessments at Counseling Centers. Offered at the 2006 Annual Convention of the Association for the Coordination of Counseling Center Clinical Services, June 1-3, 2006 at Savannah, GA.
- Nonviolence Goes To College. A 2-hour co-presentation with Heather Reed, Assistant Dean of Student Life and Kelly Maze, Safe Zone Ally. Presentation offered at the Violence Goes To College Conference at Boulder Colorado, May 22-24, 2006.
- Introduction to Nonviolence Studies (DAS 450, WOMST 500B). Taught a 3-credit class, one day per week. Focused on nonviolence issues. Spring 2005.
- Anger Management: Physical, Cognitive, and Behavioral Strategies. A 3-hour workshop co-presented with John Robertson, Ph.D. and Susan Reynolds, M.S. as a Continuing Education workshop in Wichita, KS on March 25, 2002. Same workshop also offered September 16, 2002 in Topeka, KS.

Publications (last 5 years): None

Grants (last 5 years): None

Awards and Honors:

E. Walter Morrison Award by the Kansas State University Student Foundation – March 2005

Other professional service (state, regional, or national professional organizations):

Member: Flint Hills Human Rights Project
Regional AIDS Project