

K-State Young Writers' Workshop

2020 Success Summary

100% of participants agree or strongly agree that they felt encouraged to continue writing creatively after the Young Writers' Workshop.

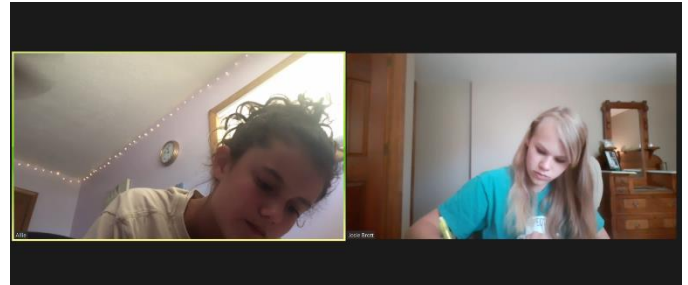

Participants said:

"I loved meeting so many new, insanely talented people! The instructors were so kind and supportive, and the writing prompts really helped me be more creative."

"I enjoyed pretty much everything. I loved all the people and made some friends."

"The fiction YA writer was my favorite. She gave me so much advice and I will remember it always."

"I really enjoyed talking to the experts."

100% of participants felt that the instructors were helpful and encouraging.

100% of participants agree or strongly agree that the guest speakers were both educational and engaging.

