

K-State Young Writers' Workshop

Success Summary 2022

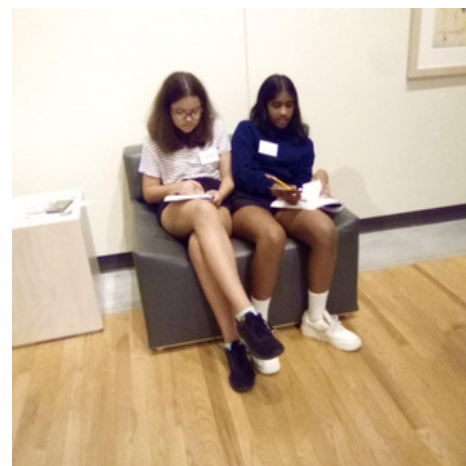

100% of the young writers felt their instructors were encouraging and helpful.

100% of the young writers felt the visiting writers were educational and engaging.

100% of the young writers felt encouraged to continue writing creatively after attending the workshop.

100% of the young writers were satisfied with our home for the week, the Marianna Kistler Beach Museum of Art.

Participants said:

"I really enjoyed exploring different genres with the help of the instructors. I learned a lot."

"I learned a lot from the guest writers and I'll always remember the advice I've received from them and the instructors."

"I don't think there was any aspect I didn't like."

"I feel like a better writer."

"I enjoyed listening to all the guest writers because I learned something new every time."