

K-STATE YOUNG WRITERS' WORKSHOP

2023 Success Summary

100% of the young writers felt encouraged to continue writing creatively after the workshop.

100% of the young writers felt their instructors were encouraging.

100% of the young writers were happy with the location of the workshop: The Mariana Kistler Beach Museum of Art.

What did young writers enjoy most about the workshop?

- "Meeting new people, and having a chance to enhance my skills and grow creatively."
- "I loved almost everything about it. I loved poetry, fiction, and all the fun activities we did. This was such a fun week."
- "I enjoyed having other people and mentors to write with."

What did participants learn throughout the week?

- "I gained more confidence, and the desire to keep writing."
- "The perspective that I can write about anything."
- "Knowledge, friendship, opportunity, ideas, skills, growth, and many other things."
- "I definitely gained confidence in sharing my work."

For more information, visit www.ksu.edu/english ~ english@ksu.edu