COURSE PROPOSALS

ADD: GRAD 702. TESL/TEFL for Adult Learners. (2) I, II, S. One of three courses to provide content and practice in defined skill areas. Survey of current theories, techniques, and methodologies in adult TESL/TEFL provides a foundation for practical application in the classroom in GRAD 703 and GRAD 704. Topics of learning styles, course planning, identification of learning objectives, and assessment of adult second/foreign language learners are incorporated into practical activities. Pr. Graduate standing, or prior or concurrent enrollment with GRAD 703 or 704.

RATIONALE: This course will provide Master’s TEFL students in the Modern Language Second Language Acquisition track with an overview of current ESL/EFL methodology, practice teaching experience, and the development of a professional teaching portfolio. The Modern Language MA track offers people wanting training in second language training (as opposed to bilingual) the opportunity to learn how to teach adult learners (as opposed to K-12). The practice teaching will be conducted in EFL classes in the English Language Program. The students in the practice teaching classes will be adult learners.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Fall 2008

ADD: GRAD 703. Practicum in Adult TESL/TEFL: Oral Communication. (2) I, II, S. Methods and techniques for teaching oral communication (listening comprehension, speaking, and pronunciation) provide a foundation for planning and teaching activities. Students demonstrate ability to communicate content to students at varying levels of English proficiency, control of basic classroom management techniques, and use of a variety of techniques to assess student performance in their practice teaching. Small group discussions and ESL class observations aid students in the development of a teaching portfolio. Pr. Graduate standing, or prior or concurrent enrollment in GRAD 702.
