New:

The African Studies minor is designed to provide students with knowledge of and appreciation for African History, society and natural environment. Africa is the second largest continent with over 20 percent of the World’s land area with 53 countries and more than 800 ethnic groups. The continent has diverse history, culture, economy, political environments. Over the recent years, countries across Africa have undergone drastic political, economic, cultural and social change. The African studies minor will provide students the opportunity to understand and experience this diverse region through courses that offer knowledge, the necessary language skills and first hand experience in various parts of Africa. The minor will have a special focus on African agriculture, health, and the environment from various perspectives.

Students must have a minimum GPA of 2.0 to qualify for the minor. A minimum of twenty-one (21) hours of designated course work with a grade of C or above for all courses is needed to complete the minor.

Required courses for the Minor (21 Credit Hours):

- AFRI 501: Seminar I – Economics of Poverty and Wealth Creation in Africa (natural sciences component – 3 credit hours). Explores opportunities for breaking the cycle of poverty across the continent using strategic wealth creation techniques that overcome poverty. Focusing on the agriculture and food system, environment and natural resources, and the health of the African people.

- AFRI 502: Seminar II: African Development social sciences component – (3 credits). Introduction to current political and economic conditions facing Africa from a historical, social, economic, political and human context. Solutions to the current problems confronting the African continent are analyzed.

- Cultures of Africa (ANTH 550) (3 credit hours). This course introduces students to family life, subsistence patterns, exchange systems, languages, religions, and development of the peoples of Africa.

- Swahili I, II, (SWAH 101, SWAH 102 – 8 credit hours, 4 credit hours each) or two semesters of any indigenous African language, French or Portuguese. These language courses will introduce students to various African cultures and lifestyles.

- African Study Abroad (AFRI 400) – 4 credit hours. Provide students the opportunity to apply their knowledge of an African language and to learn first-hand various African societies, cultures, farming systems, environment, health and other issues. This course will be taught by various faculty affiliates in the African Studies Center and will involve African collaborators in the host countries who will offer lectures and coordinate site visits. Other African experiences can be taken into account for credit with approval from an African Studies advisor. The course will be coordinated in collaboration with the Study Abroad Program at KSU.

Recommended course for the Minor:

- Global Agricultural Economy, Hunger, and Poverty (AGEC 415), 3 credit hours. This course provides students with an understanding of interdependence between the world’s food, populations, equitability-poverty problems, and assesses alternative solutions to these problems, in particular the role of technological and policy/institutional changes in fostering sustainable development. Pr. AGEC 120, Econ 120. Recommended Pr. Econ 110.

RATIONALE: Africa is one of the largest continents in the globe with diverse cultures, histories, economic and political environments. The continent faces several challenges related to health, food security and environmental challenges, which have been amplified by the unstable political conditions in many countries. The African Studies Minor will not only enable students’ learning about these challenges but will also afford them first-hand experience through direct interaction with the African communities in study tours and participation in collaborative projects. As part of the current emphasis on internationalization at K-State, several faculty members across disciplines have collaborated with African institutions in addressing some of these challenges through teaching, research and intervention projects. Such collaboration will enable stronger linkages between the United States and African countries.

IMPACT: College of Arts and Sciences, College of Agriculture, and College of Human Ecology.
