Proposal: Semester final exams for courses that begin before 5:00 PM and meet only once weekly will be scheduled according to the regular semester final examination schedule.

Rationale: The proposal will move semester final exams for courses that begin before 5:00 PM and meet only once weekly from the last week of classes to the semester final examination period. This change will bring current practice into compliance with current policy (University Handbook, F70) and resolve faculty concerns about instructional time lost when semester final exams are scheduled during the last class period.

University Handbook – Change to Section F71
Examinations
Change from:

F70 Semester final examinations are scheduled by the Committee on Academic Policy and Procedures. Once the final examination time for a course is published on the web under “Course Schedules,” it may be changed only with the concurrence of the university provost. Faculty members may assign take-home examinations, projects, papers or other media in lieu of a written final examination. In such instances, the deadline for submittal of the alternative assessment may not be earlier than the end of the scheduled final examination period for the course.

Except for honors, problems, seminar, reports, research, laboratory practical, language, studio and fine arts performance classes, the last examination (either unit or comprehensive) must be given during the final examination period published on the web. No examination (unit or final) may be scheduled seven calendar days prior to the first scheduled day of semester examinations. (FSM 5/13/03)

F71 Faculty members may not give the last examination at a time other than that published in the class schedule. The final examination may be given to an individual student under special circumstances at another time during final examinations. In particular, students who have more than two examinations scheduled in a 24-clock hour period (a 24-hour period starting at any time) may petition the instructor(s) of the highest numbered course(s) and schedule an alternative time for taking the final examination(s) at some other time during final examinations. If a student is unable to arrange the necessary rescheduling through the instructors involved, then the academic dean will resolve the overload problem, if all the scheduled examinations are within the same college. If the examinations in question are within the jurisdiction of different colleges, decisions regarding rescheduling shall be made by the university provost.
