MINUTES

Faculty Senate Committee on Technology

10/1/2013

3:30pm – 5:00pm
Union 226

Meeting called by Donald P Crawford

Attendees:	Don Crawford Teresa Hartman Ann Knackendoffel Brian Lindshield Harish Maringanti Anil Pahwa Michael Raine	Tom Schermerhorn Ken Stafford Ben Stark Theo Stavropoulos Fran Willbrant Kevin M. Cook Luke Haselwood

3:30pm – 3:40pm	Approval of minutes All	Minutes from September 17, 2013 meeting
3:40pm – 4:15pm	MAP-Works Kevin M. Cook Asst Dir for Dept Initiatives Department of Housing & Dining E-mail: kcook@k-state.edu Office phone:(785) 532-2644	MAP-Works - Improving student success and retention. A non-confidential survey that all first-year students are asked the 3rd week of the Fall semester Students receive a report detailing their strengths and areas for improvement with associated campus resources that can assist them Survey data and some incoming characteristics are used to classify a student's risk; Academics, Socio-Emotional, Behaviors & Activities, Academic Performance & Expectations, Financial Means Survey data is made available to faculty and staff at K-State who are connected to that student; Residence hall staff, Academic advisor, First Year Seminar faculty.

4:15pm – 4:50pm	Zoom Training Session Luke Haselwood Computer Information Spec Information Technlogy Asst Ctr E-mail: lhaselwo@k-state.edu Office phone:(785) 532-5995	Zoom, for HD video and audio conferencing and screen sharing, is available to all K-State students, faculty and staff. Zoom can be used from any PC, Mac, iPad, iPhone, Android device. The agreement between K-State and Zoom allows for up to 10,000 simultaneous meetings with up to 25 participants in each meeting. Guests can easily be invited to meetings hosted by a K-State student or faculty/staff member and will have access to all features as a guest. See Article: KB11208
4:50pm – 5:00pm	Updates / Other All	The English Language Program would like to remind you of the Grand Opening of the International Technology Commons that will take place today from 4:00PM - 5:30PM.