Dear _____,

K-State Research and Extension in [county/district] is pleased to announce a community-wide conversation on [date] at [time]. The purpose of this conversation will be to bring community members and key stakeholders together to discuss how we can work together to create a healthier community. Everyone has a stake in our community's health – and we want to hear your voice!

Are you ready to make a difference? If so, join me at [place] on [date] at [time]. The opportunity will include free refreshments!

Can I count you in?
