Welcome to K-State!

When I was an undergraduate at Kansas State University, I was a member of the K-State Greek family, and we both of my children. I recommend that you explore the opportunities that fraternity and sorority membership offers you at our university.

K-State has a proud Greek tradition. Year in and year out, K-State’s Greek chapters thrive in Manhattan and make a difference in the community. Our 47 Greek organizations encourage leadership, academic excellence, service, and lifelong friendship among their members. Each year our members volunteer more than 50,000 hours to philanthropic organizations, donate more than $200,000 to national, regional and local charities.

As a new member of our university family, I hope that you will consider Greek life as one of the many student organizations and organized living options. The partnership between K-State and the Greek community is something I am proud of and is a tradition worth considering.

Best Regards,

Pat J. Bosco, Ph.D.
Dean of Students
Vice President for Student Life

K-STATE GREEK LIFE

SCHOLARSHIP • SERVICE AND PHILANTHROPY • EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING • LEADERSHIP • BROTHERHOOD/SISTERSHOOD

Joining the Greek community at K-State has many benefits. Successful scholarship is our priority. Apart from scholarship, leadership opportunities are endless. Whether you choose to become involved in your chapter or elsewhere on campus, the network for connections provides you with great leadership experience.

Community service and philanthropy are also important aspects of Greek life. Fraternity and sorority members volunteer their time and donate money to national, statewide and local charities. The keynotes to Greek life: brotherhood and sisterhood. The bonds developed between members are more than just lifelong friendships. That sense of brotherhood and sisterhood is nurtured through shared leadership and the rewards and challenges of involvement with a self-governing body of men and women.

Educational programming provides chapters and members the opportunity for self-development and leadership growth. In coordination with the Interfraternity Council and Panhellenic Association, Office of Greek Affairs works toward providing you with the ultimate Greek life experience at K-State.

K-State Greek Week

Greek Week is held during the spring semester and is dedicated to recognizing fraternity and sorority life at K-State. With a variety of activities, Greek Week promotes community and is a great way for chapters to reach out to K-State students, faculty, staff and the Manhattan community.

Costs

Being a part of any living organization—from residence halls to apartments—has a cost, but at K-State, the average cost of living in a Greek chapter is actually lower than the average cost of living in the residence halls. For more information about fraternity and sorority costs, visit our website: k-state.edu/greekweek.

Interfraternity Council (IFC)
- The Interfraternity Council is the local governing body for 25 chapters at K-State. This body of representatives works toward promoting a unified community by serving and developing its member chapters. They set policies and coordinate events throughout the year in an effort to grow the bond of interfraternal brotherhood.

Panhellenic Association (PHA)
- The Panhellenic Association is the governing body of the 13 Panhellenic sororities at K-State. The association promotes excellence in academics, campus and community involvement. They also set policies as well as organize events through the year. In addition, PHA coordinates fall formal recruitment for 12 National Panhellenic Conference sororities. Working collaboratively, the association strives for unity, excellence and service to others by upholding the commitment to fraternal values upon which its organizations were founded.
