The authors owe much to Huber Self who prepared a departmental history in 1983, which he updated in 1987, and again in 1991. Most of the early history presented in this document draws heavily on Professor Self's pioneering work. We dedicate this history to Huber Self.

We are deeply indebted to Sandy Bussing for her careful editing of our original manuscript. She placed it in a proper format and offered many helpful suggestions on organization and expression.

Laura Kendra took our tough, sometimes handwritten, pages, and skillfully and cheerfully typed repeated drafts for us to revise. Kathy Zimmerman professionally prepared the final manuscript. Cindy Von Elling in Special Collections at Hale Library greatly assisted us with the photographs. Cover illustrations were by Emile C. Fischer and Dick McDonald of the College of Architecture.

The Geography Department faculty supported us in many ways. We wish especially to thank Richard Marston for his encouragement and assistance in preparing this manuscript. We wish also to acknowledge John Harrington, Chuck Martin, Shawn Hutchinson, Max Lu, and Kevin Blake for their assistance.
