The Seaton Globe
Kansas State University  Geography Department
16 Sep 2013

Departmental & Campus Events

16 Sep (M) Graduate student professional development workshop. “The Library & Your Research: Understanding Refwork,” 1:30-2:30 pm, Library 301
18 Sep (W) Faculty coffee; 2:30 pm, Union
20 Sep (F) 2013 State of the University address. President Schulz, 3:30 pm, Alumni Center

Geography Department Fall Gathering at the Caldas home, 6:30-10 pm, 1617 Virginia Dr.

21 Sep (Sa) GTU / Geography Club Highway Pick-Up, 8 am (see below)
22 Sep (Su) Autumnal equinox
23 Sep (M) Last day for 50% refund for withdrawal from a regular session course
24-25 Sep All-University Career Fair. See www.k-state.edu/ces/students/cfalluniversitycareerfair.html
27 Sep (F) GTU / Geography Club BBQ & Camping, beginning 6 pm (see below)

Geography Club / GTU

The K-State Geography Club and Beta Psi Chapter of Gamma Theta Upsilon, the international geography honor society, has scheduled two events for this month. Highway Maintenance Day will be this Saturday, 21 Sep. Meet at GISSAL, 8 am, for a short safety video & transportation to GTU’s adopted highway section to contribute to GTU comradeship, good stories, & making the world look better. Coffee & doughnuts will be provided. The 3rd Annual GTU/Geography Club BBQ & Camp Out will be held Friday, 27 Sep, at Pottawatomie Lake No. 2 Campground. The BBQ will commence at 6 pm. All are welcome. Hotdogs & burgers will be provided, bring sides & drinks. Need not camp to partake in the cookout. (Please note that alcohol is prohibited in the park.) Transportation will be available, & camping equipment can be borrowed.

Departmental Activities

Professional Publications

http://worldgeography2.abc-clio.com/

Calls for Papers, Posters, & Participation-Conferences

Great Plains/Rocky Mountain Division of the AAG. Abstracts due 18 Sep. See www.cvent.com/events/great-plains-rocky-mountain-annual-meeting-2013/event-summary-b8638b30505a47f3a4be4ad73972b9a.aspx. There will be competitions for student papers (undergraduate, masters, and PhD) and posters. Contact Karen Falconer Al-Hindi with questions (kfalconeralhindi@unomaha.edu).
Association of American Geographers Annual Meeting, 8-12 Apr 2014, Tampa. The early bird deadline for registering to attend the 2014 AAG Annual Meeting in Tampa Bay is 23 Oct, to receive discounted registration fees. The absolute abstract deadline is 3 Dec. See www.aag.org/cs/annualmeeting for more information. Check AAG communities online for specialty group awards programs.

AAG Awards Deadlines: see www.aag.org/cs/calendar/awards for more information

Nominations for Enhancing Diversity Award, 15 Sep. For geographers who have pioneered efforts toward or actively participated in efforts toward encouraging a more diverse discipline over the course of several years.

Nominations for Honorary Geographer, 15 Sep. For excellence in research, teaching, or writing on geographic topics by non-geographers.

Nominations for Brunn Award for Creativity in Geography, 20 Sep. For demonstrated originality, creativity, and significant intellectual breakthroughs in geography.

Applications for Nystrom Award, 10 Oct. For a paper based upon a recent dissertation in geography.

Nominations for Garrison Award for Best Dissertation, 15 Oct. Supports innovative research into the computational aspects of geographic science.

Nominations for Marble-Boyle Undergraduate Achievement Awards in Geographic Science, 15 Oct. For excellence in academic performance by undergraduate students from the United States and Canada who are putting forth a strong effort to bridge geographic science and computer science as well as to encourage other students to embark upon similar programs.

Nominations for Rose Award for Anti-Racism Research and Practice, 15 Oct. For those who have served to advance the discipline through their research, and who have also had an impact on anti-racist practice.

Funds for AAG Members with Disabilities to Attend AAG Annual Meeting, 1 Nov. For members with disabilities for travel support or other services related to enhancing their participation in the 2013 AAG Annual Meeting.

Distinguished Non-Geographers Enrichment Funds, 7 Nov. To enrich the AAG Annual Meeting by providing funds for individuals who likely would not participate in an AAG meeting without the awards.

Nominations for Burrill Award, 31 Dec. For work of exceptional merit and quality that lies at or near the intersection of basic research in geography on the one hand, and practical applications or policy implications on the other.

Applications for Dissertations Research Grants, 31 Dec. Support for doctoral dissertation research in the form of small grants of up to $500 to PhD candidates of any geographic specialty.

Nominations for Laws Award, 31 Dec. Recognizes outstanding contributions to geographic research on social issues by early to mid-career scholars.

Nominations for Globe Book Award, 31 Dec. For a book that conveys most powerfully the nature and importance of geography to the non-academic world.

Nominations for Hoffman Award, 31 Dec. For student research toward a master's thesis or doctoral dissertation on a geographical subject in Eastern Europe.

Applications for Jackson Prize, 31 Dec. For a book about the United States which conveys the insights of professional geography in language that is interesting and attractive to a lay audience.

Applications for Marcus Fund for Physical Geography, 31 Dec. To support travel and logistical costs of including students in field research in physical geography.

Applications for Meridian Book Award, 31 Dec. For a book that makes an unusually important contribution to advancing the science and art of geography.
Nominations for Miller Award, 31 Dec. For members of the Association who have made truly outstanding contributions to the geographic field due to their special competence in teaching or research.

Research Grant Applications, 31 Dec. For small grants of no more than $1000 to support research and fieldwork. Not for graduate research.

Applications for White Fund, 31 Dec. To enables people, regardless of any formal training in geography, to engage in useful field studies and to have the joy of working alongside their partners.

Please contact Lisa Butler Harrington (lbutlerh@ksu.edu) with Seaton Globe items.