Director for the Master of Public Health (MPH) Program
Graduate School

Campus: Manhattan
Starting date: January 2016

Job Summary
The Kansas State University Graduate School is seeking a full or associate professor to serve as director for the master of public health (MPH) program. The director will provide leadership for the advancement of the program and contribute to scholarly activities. The MPH program (http://www.k-state.edu/mphealth) is a collaborative, interdepartmental graduate degree-granting program accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health. Students select an emphasis in food safety and biosecurity; infectious disease and zoonoses; public health nutrition; or public health physical activity.

Required qualifications:
- an earned doctorate in public health or master of public health with doctorate in related field
- administrative/leadership experience in the field of public health
- broad understanding of the field of public health
- outstanding oral and written communication skills
- experience with obtaining and managing funding
- demonstrated ability to relate positively and effectively with students, colleagues, and professional staff
- commitment to diversity

Preferred qualifications:
- administrative experience with CEPH accredited program
- experience in public health career placement
- experience in promotion of public health opportunities
- experience in expanding public health opportunities

Total Rewards
Health Insurance and Wellness
Leaves and Holidays
Retirement Plans
Worker's Compensation
Tuition Assistance
Life Insurance

For additional information refer to the benefits summary:
http://www.k-state.edu/hr/current-employees/benefits/summary.html.

How to Apply
Please send a curriculum vitae, letter of interest that addresses public health experience and a vision for the MPH program at K-State, and contact information for three professional references to gsemployment@ksu.edu.

Application Review Date: October 1, 2015
Salary is negotiable and will be commensurate with experience.

Contact Information
Kansas State University
Graduate School
gsemployment@ksu.edu or 785-532-5344

Kansas State University is an Equal Opportunity Employer of individuals with disabilities and protected veterans and actively seeks diversity among its employees. Background check required.