

SUMMER 2007

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY GRADUATE SCHOOL INFORMATION & DEADLINES

To be eligible to graduate this semester, your program of study must have been submitted and been approved no later than the end of last semester. Also note that preliminary examinations for doctoral candidates must have been taken at least seven months before the final examination. The final examination can be taken when you have completed the courses on your program of study and have satisfied all other degree requirements. You must take examinations while the University is in session and normally examinations must be given on the Manhattan campus. All forms and information regarding graduation are available at <http://www.k-state.edu/grad/gscurrent/guideforms/index.htm>.

DEADLINES

▪ August 10, 2007 GRADUATION AUGUST 2007

To officially graduate in August 2007, your final examination ballot and the final copy of the electronic dissertation or the final paper copies of the master's level thesis/report must be in the Graduate School by August 10, 2007. You should allow time prior to this date for scheduling your final examination, getting signatures on the Approval Form (see below), and submitting the form to the Graduate School for processing and sending the ballot for your final examination. Committee members should be given a minimum of 10 working days to review your thesis, dissertation, or report.

▪ August 10, 2007 DIPLOMA INFORMATION FORM

The Diploma Information form must be submitted to the Graduate School no later than August 10, 2007.

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULING

The "Approval to Schedule Final Examination" form should be submitted to the Graduate School, 103 Fairchild, at least 10 working days in advance of the final examination. The form must be signed by your committee members, department head/program director, and outside chairperson (for doctoral candidates). A copy of your thesis, report, or dissertation should be given to your committee members and outside chair (for doctoral candidates) at the time you obtain their signatures on the Approval Form. You are advised to allow time after the final examination to make changes in your dissertation, thesis or report.

DIPLOMA INFORMATION FORM

A "Diploma Information" form must be submitted to the Graduate School with your name, as you want it to appear on the diploma, and your address for mailing your diploma six to eight weeks after graduation. The form is available at <https://www.ksu.edu/grad/forms/sec/diploma.html> for submission online. This information must be received in the Graduate School no later than August 10, 2007.

FINAL EXAMINATION BALLOT

After receipt of the Approval Form, the Graduate School will notify you by email as to whether or not your degree requirements have been satisfied. If there are no problems or as soon as any problems have been solved, the Graduate School will issue a ballot for your final examination. The chairperson of the examining committee prior to conducting the examination must receive the final examination ballot.

DRAFT OF THESIS OR REPORT

The Graduate School must review a draft before submitting the final copies of the thesis or report.

COURSE WORK

Previous semester grades

If your record includes incomplete or unreported grades for courses on your program of study, a ballot will not be issued for your final examination. You should, therefore, work with your major professor and other faculty members to ensure that all incomplete grades for previous semesters' course work have been assigned a letter grade or "Credit" at least a week before your final examination. (This does not include research hours.)

Current semester grades

You are responsible for working with your major professor and other faculty members to make certain that grades for your current semester's course work and credits for all research hours are submitted on time. These grades/credits must be received by the Registrar's Office by August 1, 2007 in order to receive your degree in August. If you are taking a course that ends on August 10, 2007 the final grade must be submitted to the Registrar's Office by August 15, 2007.

Transfer course work

If you are enrolled this semester in course work at another university that is included on your program of study, an official transcript should be sent to the Graduate School, 103 Fairchild Hall, Manhattan, Kansas, 66506, as soon as grades are posted or no later than August 16, 2007.

REPORT/THESIS/DISSERTATION FEES

Students submitting a report or thesis will be charged a fee for processing and binding the documents; these fees will be posted to your university account when the Approval to Schedule Final Examination Form is submitted to the Graduate School. Doctoral Students are required to pay a fee for UMI processing of their dissertation abstract. Payment must be mailed or delivered to the Cashiers Office, 212 Anderson Hall, Manhattan, Kansas 66506, anytime before the due date posted on the bill. Personal checks should be made payable to Kansas State University. Please note on the memo line or attach a note that payment is for processing of report, thesis, or dissertation.

COMMENCEMENT INFORMATION

Commencement ceremonies are held in December and May. Beginning in late October, commencement information and the web address to register online to participate in commencement will be sent to students who graduated in Summer 2007. Please notify the Graduate School if you do not receive information and you wish to attend. If you prefer to attend a subsequent commencement, please notify the Graduate School at least two months prior to that commencement.

Proper academic apparel is required to participate in the commencement ceremony. You may order your cap, gown and hood through the K-State Student Union Bookstore at 785-532-6583 or 1-800-578-2287. When placing your order, be sure to specify which degree you will be receiving; i.e., Master of Science, Master of Arts, Master of Music, Doctor of Education, etc. You should pick up your regalia no later than the day before commencement.

CLEARING OF RECORD

All financial obligations to the University must be cleared before a transcript or diploma will be released.

EXIT SURVEY

All students who are graduating are asked to complete an exit survey to provide feedback on the quality of graduate education at K-State. This exit survey is now available online at <http://www.k-state.edu/grad/forms/exsurvey.htm>. For your convenience, as well as ease of compiling the information, you are encouraged to complete the survey online. If you do not have access to the internet, please contact the Graduate School at (785) 532-6191, (800) 651-1816, or grad@ksu.edu, and a copy will be sent to you. Please complete and submit only one version of the survey. Your comments will be treated with strict confidence and will only be used in conjunction with collective responses from a large sample of students.
