WOMEN’S STUDIES PAPER COMPETITION

Deadline:
Monday, April 16, 2012 at 5pm

The paper:
* Must deal with issues of gender, broadly defined
* Must be the work of single author
* Must have been written for a WOMST course or an approved WOMST elective.
* Work must have been completed, May 2011 through April 2012

Only one submission per student allowed

Submission instructions:
* Submit 3 copies of the paper
* Format:
  - Cover page must indicate the title of the work, name, address, phone number, classification (grad or undergrad), name of the class for which the paper was written, and then name of the instructor
  - Second page must include the title and classification of the student - DO NOT include student name
  * A copy of the assignment for which the paper was written can be submitted.

Two awards will be available, one to an undergraduate student and one to a graduate student. The award includes a $100 prize.

For more information contact:
Michele Janette, Chair Women’s Studies Department
3 Leasure Hall
(785) 532-5738