2011 Women of Color Film Series

TAKE ACTION: Women Who Fight for Justice

March 4th

Very Young Girls

The dramatic story of former sexually exploited youth-turned-activist Rachel Lloyd and her fight for the rights and lives of adolescents forced into the sex trade.

April 1st

Women Without Men

This stirring film unfolds the lives of four Iranian women during the summer of 1953—a cataclysmic moment in Iranian history.

April 29th

Taking Root: The Vision of Wangari Muta

A compelling story of one woman's journey in the turbulent politics of Kenya and her fight to protect the people and the land.

Films start at 4:30, Leasure 13. Free and open to the public.

Sponsored by The Women's Studies Program and Women's Studies Ambassadors