New Faculty Orientation
Fall 2015

Graduate School
103 Fairchild Hall
Mission

Provide exceptional graduate student services that enhance professional and career development, support graduate student research and scholarly endeavors, and create an environment that promotes interdisciplinary and cultural interaction, all while advocating for competitive compensation packages for all students.
Relationship of Graduate School and Other Colleges

• Administrative unit that is responsible for all graduate programs on campus
• Link to all academic departments with graduate programs
• Interdisciplinary programs report to the Graduate Dean
Graduate Programs

• 71 Master’s degrees
• 43 Doctoral (38 Ph.D./4 Ed.D.)
• 39 Graduate Certificates
Graduate Students

• Approximately 4000 graduate students
  – 61% masters
  – 30% doctoral
  – 9% non-degree
  – 53% female/47% male
  – 18% international students
  – 11% minorities
Organization

- Administrative Team
- Support Team
- Graduate Faculty
- Graduate Program Directors
- Graduate Council
Graduate Faculty

• Membership
  – Teach graduate courses
  – Serve as major professor masters’ students
  – Serve on doctoral committees

• Certification
  – Same as membership except can serve as major professor for doctoral students
Resources

- Graduate School Website (www.ksu.edu/grad)
- Graduate Handbook - (www.k-state.edu/grad/graduate-handbook)
- Online Graduate Catalog (catalog.k-state.edu/index.php?catoid=2)
- Online Advising Doctoral Students Modules---Module 2 is recommended for all faculty mentors
- Workshops
Invitation To Become Involved

• Become a member of the graduate faculty
• Teach graduate courses
• Participate on supervisory committees
• Serve as major
Invitation To Become Involved

• Recruit graduate students
• Serve as outside chair
• Serve on Graduate Council or Task Forces
• Attend New Graduate Faculty Orientation
  – October 27, 9:30-11:00 am., 227 KSU Union
QUESTIONS

Graduate School
103 Fairchild Hall

Be Social With Us!
@KSUGradSchool  KSU Graduate School