

James E. Sherow
12 November 2008
Kansas History

TOPIC: The Response to Populism in Manhattan during the 1892 Election

SOURCES:

Newspaper Articles:

A Stormy Lecture: Mary Elizabeth Lease Rattles the Town,” Manhattan Mercury, 23 March 1892, 1.

Sockless’ Jerry Simpson Actually Wears Socks!” Manhattan Industrialist, 1 April 1892, 3.

Brainless Jones, “William Peffer Must Cut His Beard,” New York Times, 1 September 1892, 1(A).

“The End of the World: Pops Win the Statehouse,” Manhattan Mercury, 10 November 1892, 1.

Secondary Sources:

Craig Miner, Kansas: The History of the Sunflower State, 1854-2000 (Lawrence: University Press of Kansas), 182.

Rebecca Edwards, “Mary Elizabeth Lease: Advocate for Political Reform,” in John Brown to Bob Dole, ed. by Virgil W. Dean (Lawrence: University Press of Kansas), 127-9.

“Chicago-Style Citation Quick Guide”

http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html