Treaty Article #19

1. I was a resident of the Peoples Republic of China on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not an U.S. citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.
2. I am visiting the United States for the purpose of teaching, giving lectures or conducting research at Kansas State University, which is an accredited educational or scientific research institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching, lecturing or research activities.
3. The teaching, lecturing or research compensation received during the entire tax year (or during the period from _____ to _____) qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and the Peoples Republic of China. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under that treaty for income received as a teacher, lecturer, researcher, or student before the date of my arrival in the United States.
4. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the public interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.
5. I arrived in the United States on _____ [insert the date of your last arrival in the United States before beginning the teaching, lecturing, or research activities]. The treaty exemption is available only for compensation received during a maximum aggregate period of three years.

I have read the above statement, and declare that it is made under the penalties of perjury.
