

The meeting of the K-State LGBTQ & More began in the State Room at 5:00pm on Wednesday, September 23, 2009. President Dusty Garner started the meeting off by having the group members introduce themselves. Old business was attended to with the first item being several of K-State's professors requesting members to participate in Panels for a variety of classes. This Friday, September 25, 2009, four members volunteered to give their stories and open the class up for questions. Those members were Becki Taylor, Lucas Ebert, Vice-President, Jeffrey Hart, and Hannah Mattocks. The next Panel didn't have a specific date but was to be at the end of October on a Tuesday or Thursday. The members who were to donate their time were Denise Mead, Sam Brinton, Lucas Ebert and Secretary, Kayla Klahr. The final Panel is to be on October 14, 2009 from 10:30 to 11:20. Denise Mead, Jeffrey Hart, Sabrina Jones and Lucas Ebert volunteered to take part in that activity. Several announcements followed the first being about National Coming Out Day. Denise updated the membership by informing them that we will be Chalking Bosco Plaza with the rainbow flag and random spots around campus with the list of famous LGBTQ people and symbols. The chalking is to be done the night of the 8th of October and go until the job is finished. The following day from 10 to noon an informational game will be held in Bosco Plaza and flyers will be handed out. Also a few members will be attending the March on Washington October 10th and 11th. Dusty informed the members that a discussion board had been created for members to discuss transportation. Dusty also reminded us that there is no registration and requested that everyone remember that the drive takes 19 hours and to be safe. If anyone needs more information please look at the webpage: nationalequalitymarch.com. Drew Rhodes informed us of the Game Night that will be held in the Union Thursday, October first. A few games that will be played are Apples to Apples, Rock Band, Celebrity and Spoons. The item of business that the club get t-shirts was re-approached and Dusty is calling GTM and Ballards for a comparison on prices. He will report his finding next meeting. Sam then gave a general announcement about is club against nuclear weapons and invited the membership out this Thursday the 24th on Bosco Plaza at 6:15 pm to eat pizza and show our support. Dusty then informed us that HEAT at PJ's is now HEAVEN at The Loft. Please remember to show our support to them for allowing us to continue to have a safe place and thank them for there support. Another social opportunity is Thursday the first at Purple Mask. As Bee's in Honey will be showing and there is a gay character. Then an email from Chris Renner at KSDB was read. He requested two members to come out for his show from 5-6 on the 8th of October to tell their coming out stories for National Coming out Day. Lucas Ebert and Ana Abente volunteered. Everyone make sure to tune in. Finally Dusty reminded members who wanted to participate in the mentor program to meet up with Kayla and ended the meeting.
