* You * K-State * The World

The Nonviolence Studies Certificate is available to all K-State students through the College of Arts & Sciences.

The UG Nonviolence Studies Certificate is for you if you want to:

* Change local and global conditions that lead to violence and system failure. *Create egalitarian and just social relations that contribute to a better world. * Pursue a career in:

* Education *Policy and Politics *Clergy *Ending poverty &inequality

*Community/Group *Military "Soft Power" * Public Health * Journalism

Organizing

Nonviolence Studies Certificate Qualifying & Cross-Listed Courses

DAS/WOMST	A - Introduction to Nonviolence Studies: Be the Change	Sagrika Gadgil
355	B - Intro to Non violence Studies: Ever y Day NV ONLINE	Susan L Allen
DAS 455	History & Theories of Nonviolence ONLINE	Thea Nietfeld
		Trish Gott
EDLST502	International Community Service Seminar	MaryTolar
FSHS531	Core Conflict Resolution	Terrie McCants
FSHS532	Conflict Across Cultures and Contexts	Terrie McCants
FSHS533	Prevention and Intervention of Violence	Terrie McCants
FSHS700	Peace and Conflict [in Northern Ireland]	Terrie McCants
SOCWK568	Social Work Practice 3	Jacque Gibbons
SOCIO363	Global Problems	Robert Schaeffer
ANTHRO	Introduction to Anthropology	Michael Wesch
WOMST480	Women and Environmentalism	Valerie Carroll
HORT640	The End of Industrial Society & Agriculture as	Rh on da Janke
(some years)	We Know It?	Isidor Wallimann
DAS/	Applied Nonviolence *	Torry Dickin son
WOMST590	Feminist Practice (one course; split projects)
EDCEP311	Proactive Educators for the Elimination of Rape and	Mary Todd
	Sexual Violence (2 semester course: Fall and Spring)
SOCIO507	International Development & Social Change	Theresa Selfa
WOMST105	Intro to Women's Studies	Torry Dickin son
WOMST 700	Independent Study in NVS: Every Day Nonviolence	Susan Allen
SOCIO 633	Gender, Power & Development	Nadia Shapkina
SOCIO 500	Human Trafficking	Nadia Shapkina

^{*}Bold = Core NVS courses, required for NVS Certificate; some courses taught online through DCE, as noted. All above courses count toward 15-hour NVS Certificate. Watch for a new courses; and ASK us if you think a course is appropriate and should be included!

Prepare yourself to make a difference in your field and in the world around you. Join K-State's scholarly community of nonviolence thinkers, researchers and practitioners.

For Additional Information contact: Dr. Susan L. Allen - slallen@ksu.edu