A Season for Nonviolence 2010

Events

All events open and to the public!

KSU Sustainability Conference

January 29-30
Kansas Advancing Sustainability in Higher Education
K-State's new Nonviolence Studies Certificate Program will participate in the poster session.
Registration and other information at www.sustainability.k-state.edu/conferences/2010/

Playback Theatre

February 1 and March 1
6 PM in the Little Theater
Be a part of this community story-telling event. K-State's own Playback Theatre troupe is an improvisational group that will listen to your stories and play them back to you. We will explore different topics each night!

Sister Jean Rosemarynoski and the Concordia Year of Peace

February 18
6:30 PM, Manhattan Public Library Auditorium
We welcome Sister Jean Rosemarynoski from the Sisters of St. Joseph of Concordia, KS. She will talk about her work with the Concordia Year of Peace project which began in September of 2009.

A Force More Powerful Screening: Poland-We’ve Caught God by the Arm

March 1, Noon
Union Courtyard
This film documents the 1980 Gdansk Shipyard strike that launched the Polish Solidarity Movement and provides a close-up look at the individuals who organized to bring a nonviolent end to Soviet rule.

For the Public Good Panel Discussion

March 4
Union Room 212, 7-9 PM
A panel representing the public library, Northeast Kansas's new public radio station, K-State's Department of Public Health, UFM Community Learning Center, and the K-State Credit Union will talk about local organizations that exist for the public good.

Annual and Ongoing Events

- St. Patrick's Day Parade
  March 13, Aggieville
  Annual nonviolence entry in Manhattan's St. Patrick’s Day Parade. This parade through Aggieville draws a huge crowd and is fun for all. Bring a favorite nonviolence or peace song and all the children can round up. Watch for ads and meet us in City Park.

- Empty Bowls
  Make a bowl to support local hunger organizations. Watch for ads at Texas Star, the K-State MHS Ceramics Department, WAC and other locations.

- Date With Hate
  May 14
  A silent, nonviolent demonstration to counter the violent messages of Fred Phelps. Early morning, ABS graduation.

- NOCTIME Yoga
  Noon-1 PM
  Weekdays in Ahrn

- Meditation
  Mondays, 5:15-6:00 PM
  UFM Greenhouse
