

A Season for Nonviolence 2010

"We must be the change we wish to see in the world..."

—Mahatma Gandhi

Events

For the Public Good

All events free and open to the public!

KSU Sustainability Conference

January 29-30

Kansas Advancing Sustainability in Higher Education

K-State's new Nonviolence Studies Certificate Program will participate in the poster session.

Registration and other information at www.sustainability.k-state.edu/conferences/2010/

Playback Theatre

February 1 and March 1

6 PM in the Little Theater

Be a part of this community story-telling event. K-State's own Playback Theatre troupe is an improvisational group that will listen to your stories and play them back to you. We will explore a different topic each night!

Sister Jean Rosemarynoski and the Concordia Year of Peace

February 18

6:30 PM, Manhattan Public Library Auditorium

We welcome Sister Jean Rosemarynoski from the Sisters of St. Joseph of Concordia, KS. She will talk with us about her work with the Concordia Year of Peace project which began in September of 2009.

Can Manhattan do something similar? Find more information about the Year of Peace and the Sisters of St. Joseph at www.csjkansas.org.

"A Force More Powerful" Screening: Poland-We've Caught God by the Arm

March 1, Noon

Union Courtyard

This film documents the 1980 Gdansk Shipyard strike that launched the Polish Solidarity Movement and provides a close-up look at the individuals who organized to bring a nonviolent end to Soviet rule.

Playback Theatre

March 1

6 PM in the Little Theater

"For the Public Good" Panel Discussion

March 4

Union Room 212, 7-9 PM

A panel representing the public library, Northeast Kansas's new public radio station, K-State's Department of Public Health, UFM Community Learning Center, and the K-State Credit Union will talk about local organizations that exist "for the public good."

K-State Peace Pole

SafeZone Events & Trainings

Resource Fair

January 8, 1-3 PM (Fiedler Atrium)

Cultural Adjustment Workshop

January 8, 3 PM (Fiedler Atrium)

Human Trafficking tabling

January 19, 7 PM (Forum Hall)

Union Expo (Healthy Decisions)

January 21, 6-8 PM (KSU Union)

Introductory Training

January 26, 12:30-2:30 PM (Union 212)

Relationship I

February 2, 12:30-1:30 (Union 213)

Relationship II

February 4, 12:30-1:30 PM (Union 212)

Networking Session

February 10, 1-3 PM (Union 212)

Sexual Assault

February 24, 12-2 PM (Union 212)

CIRT

March 11, 3-4:30 PM (Union 212)

Religion & Safety issues

March 24, 12:30-1:30 PM (Union 206)

Nonviolent Communication

April 14, 12:30-2:30 (Union 212)

More info at ksu.edu/safezone

Annual and Ongoing Events

St. Patrick's Day Parade

March 13, Aggieville

Annual nonviolence entry in Manhattan's St. Patrick's Day Parade. This parade through Aggieville draws a huge crowd and is fun for all. Bring a favorite nonviolence or peace sign and all the children and dogs you can round up. Watch for ads and meet us in City Park.

Empty Bowls

Make a bowl to support local hunger organizations. Watch for ads at Texas Star, the K-State MHS Ceramics Departments, MAC and other locations.

Date With Hate

May 15

A silent, nonviolent demonstration to counter the violent messages of Fred Phelps. Early morning, A&S graduation.

NOOTIME Yoga

Noon-1 PM

Weekdays in Ahern

Meditation

Mondays, 5:15-6:00 PM

UFM Greenhouse

"Celebrating a Decade of Nonviolence Education in the Community"