

LITTLE APPLE CHAPTER OF THE NATIONAL RESIDENCE HALL HONORARY CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Little Apple Chapter of the National Residence Hall Honorary (LAC NRHH) at Kansas State University.

ARTICLE II – PHILOSOPHY

The Little Apple Chapter of the National Residence Hall Honorary is an organization dedicated to providing service by giving to the community, providing positive role models for leaders-in-training, and assisting in the diversification of future leaders. LAC NRHH is an organization devoted to promoting increased student participation by providing recognition to those individuals who have gone “above and beyond” in community involvement and academic excellence to contribute outstanding service and leadership to the residence hall system at K-State. The organization has four purposes: to provide recognition in the residence halls; to encourage continual personal and professional development in its membership; to offer leadership, academic, and service opportunities to other residence hall students; and to provide guidance to future leaders through philanthropic means.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 – Qualifications for induction into LAC NRHH

- A. A minimum cumulative 2.500 GPA is required for induction into LAC NRHH.
- B. Candidates must have lived in on-campus housing for two semesters, including the semester of induction, to be considered for induction.
- C. Transfer students from other colleges and universities who were members of the NRHH chapter at their previous school are eligible for membership upon providing verification of the previous membership in NRHH and if space exists within membership limits.

Section 2 - Membership Requirements

The organization shall consist of four types of membership: Active, Inactive, Alumni, and Honorary Membership.

- A. An active member shall
 1. be enrolled at the University and live in K-State on-campus housing.
 2. attend general body meetings and chapter events.
 3. be an active member of a committee as determined by the committee chair or an executive board member.
 4. have a cumulative GPA of 2.500 or higher. If a member's GPA falls below 2.500, the member will be placed on probation for one semester. If the member does not get their cumulative GPA back to 2.500 or above the member will become inactive until their cumulative GPA reaches 2.500 or above.

- B. An inactive member shall
 1. be a member who is enrolled at the University and lives in K-State on-campus housing
 2. be a member who has lost the privilege to vote at meetings because of a recommendation by their committee chair or an executive board member and a simple majority vote by the general body.
 3. be a member who has requested to be placed on inactive status.

- C. An alumni member shall
 1. be a member who is no longer living in K-State on-campus housing.
 2. not hold executive board positions.
 3. not vote.
 4. have the option to attend meetings for life.

- D. An honorary member shall
 1. be a member who is selected by the members of LAC NRHH for their outstanding service to K-State on-campus housing.
 2. not be a student who is returning to K-State on-campus housing next semester.
 3. be conferred upon people only by the discretion of the members of LAC NRHH. However, the members of LAC NRHH will hear petitions from other organizations for people who have provided outstanding service to K-State on-campus housing.
 4. hold the highest honor LAC NRHH members can bestow upon a non-member. This honor is intended to be used sparingly.

ARTICLE IV - SELECTION

Section 1 - Nomination

Those wishing to gain membership may be nominated in one of the following ways:

- A. Nomination by Residence Life Coordinators, Assistant Residence Life Coordinators, other Housing & Dining Employees, and other Housing and Dining Services student associations. These groups have the opportunity to nominate students who they feel should gain membership to LAC NRHH based on the qualifications stated in Article III, Section 1.

- B. Self-nomination. Anyone shall have means available to request an application for membership if they have fulfilled the requirements stated in Article III, Section 1.

Section 2 - Selection

Active membership for each academic year shall not exceed one percent of the total numbers of students living in K-State residence on-campus housing on September 1st of each academic year.
