TUTORING RESOURCES

201 Leasure Hall

You can sign up for a tutor by picking up a tutor request form in Holton Hall 101; Leasure Hall also offers walk-in help for Math and English.

ARC and DARC

Like the PILOTS study lab, they offer tutoring, computers, and study space. ARC is located in Kramer Dining Center and DARC is located in Derby Dining Center.

English Department Writing Center

Located in the English/Counseling Services Building, Room 122D, they provide walk-in tutoring or you can also enroll in a two-credit hour course that provides structured tutoring for your writing classes.

Education Support Services

First-generation and/or low-income students are encouraged to stop by Holton 201 for tutoring and academic skills classes.

Department Tutoring

Check your department’s website or your academic advisor may also be able to direct you to tutoring in your program of study. Not all departments offer free tutoring; make sure you double check.

VISIT US

Last but certainly not least, you can always come back to visit Rebeca, Jonathan, and Michelle. We want to know how you’re doing and what exciting opportunities you are involved in! Please call, email or stop by any time – our doors are always open!

OTHER RESOURCES

Student Organizations

There is a full listing of student organizations on campus at <http://www.k-state.edu/directories/orgs.html>. You will find a multitude of student groups based on majors, interests, and ethnicity.

Counseling Center

The Counseling Center offers individual or group therapy for students, but they don’t just offer counseling services! They also operate the University Life Café and offer two online programs, the Academic Anxiety Online Program and the Stress Management Online Program.

For more resources outside of the PILOTS Program, go to: <http://www.ksu.edu/pilots/usefullinks>
