

Kansas State University Policy on Discrimination and Harassment

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Kansas State University prohibits sexual harassment and discrimination and harassment on the basis of race, sex, national origin, disability, religion, age, sexual orientation, or other non-merit reasons, in admissions, educational programs or activities and in employment (including employment of disabled veterans and veterans of the Vietnam Era), as required by applicable laws and regulations. Retaliation for reporting or objecting to discrimination or harassment is a violation of this Policy.

The University has established a Policy and Procedure for Discrimination and Harassment Complaints that describes how complaints should be reported and has designated the Office of Affirmative Action to receive and investigate complaints. If you wish to discuss the Policy and Procedure, ask questions about your rights, or file a complaint, please contact:
