Policies are responses to external requirements of public law (statute or regulation). They are initiated and formed outside KSU and are reviewed for inclusion in the Handbook by Academic Affairs, Faculty Affairs or FSCOUP and then by Faculty Senate.

Policies are initiated and formed by the Board of Regents. They are reviewed for inclusion in the Handbook by Academic Affairs, Faculty Affairs or FSCOUP and then by Faculty Senate.

Policies are initiated and formed by the Board of Regents. They are reviewed for inclusion in the Handbook by Academic Affairs, Faculty Affairs or FSCOUP and then by Faculty Senate.

Responsible Committee recommends inclusion in University Handbook.
Administration and Senate are informed of policies.

After transmittal by Provost and the Faculty Senate President, policies are reviewed for editorial and policy consistency by the University Handbook and Policy Committee and then inserted into the University Handbook.

Policy adopted by standing committee and Senate, followed by review and consultation between the Senate and the Provost’s Office.