“All Things are Possible”
Presented by J.P. Bilbrey, Distinguished Alumnus
Oct. 4, 9:30-10:20 a.m., Bluemont Hall 101

J.P. Bilbrey is president and chief executive officer of the Hershey Co. Bilbrey has been instrumental in the growth of some of the world’s largest and best-known brands. At Hershey, Bilbrey has led the North America business, the international business and served as chief operating officer. He joined Hershey in 2003, following senior leadership positions at Danone Waters of North America and Procter & Gamble. Bilbrey graduated from Kansas State University with a bachelor’s degree in psychology. He serves on the board of directors of the Hershey Co. and McCormick & Co. He is a U.S. private sector member of the Obama Administration’s U.S.-Brazil CEO Forum. He also serves on the Grocery Manufacturers Association executive board and is chairman of enactus, an entrepreneurship and community development nongovernmental organization.

Panel Discussion following the presentation

Career Options with an Undergraduate Degree in Psychological Sciences: Learning from Alumni Experiences
10:30 – 11:30 a.m., 5102 Bluemont Hall

Career Options with a Graduate Degree in Psychological Sciences: Learning from Alumni Experiences
10:30 – 11:30 a.m., 498 Bluemont Hall

Panelists will be members of the Department of Psychological Sciences Alumni Advisory Council.