GENERAL

20-1 Science and Society (S&S) (NSF)

S&S considers proposals that examine questions that arise in the interactions of engineering, science, technology, and society. There are four components: Ethics and Values in Science, Engineering and Technology (EVS); History and Philosophy of Science, Engineering and Technology (HPS); Social Studies of Science, Engineering and Technology (SSS); and Studies of Policy, Science, Engineering and Technology (SPS). The components overlap, but are distinguished by the different scientific and scholarly orientations they take to the subject matter, as well as by different focuses within the subject area. This program solicitation covers the following modes of support: 1) S&S Scholars Award; 2) Standard Research Grants and Grants for Collaborative Research; 3) S&S Postdoctoral Fellowships; 4) S&S Professional Development Fellowships; 5) Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvements Grants; 6) Small Grants for Training and Research; 7) Conference and Workshop Awards; 8) Other Funding Opportunities. AGRICULTURE

20-2 Applied Plant Genomics (USDA)

The Agriculture Department invites applications for research, extension and education grants that address priority mission areas related to agricultural genomics, such as food safety, food technology and human nutrition, agriculture production and natural resource management. The focus in 2005 is large-scale translational genomics for U.S. crop or forestry improvement. The program seeks to bring together a multi-state, multi-institution and multidiscipline team to integrate discoveries and technology with breeding practice; train scientists in the practical application of genomics-based tools; and provide outreach efforts to inform consumers, producers, processors and scientists about the potential benefits of applied plant genomics.
