

K-State Study Abroad

especially for

College of Business

Office of International Programs – 304 Fairchild Hall – 785-532-5990 – www.ksu.edu/studyabroad

K-State Exchange Programs

Ajou University in Seoul, Korea

<http://www.ajou.ac.kr/>

Ajou University has over 12,000 students and around 200 exchange students from all over the world. Ajou offers over 100 courses a year in English, as well as Korean language courses. The campus is located in Suwon, which is 40 minutes from Seoul so students get high academics along with the big city experience.

Bogazici University in Istanbul, Turkey

http://www.boun.edu.tr/index_eng.html

Istanbul is a beautiful city full of culture, history and a warm Mediterranean climate. The city straddles Asia and Europe, making it a great location for education and travel. Bogazici was founded in the 1860s by an American and has always been an English-speaking university. Currently it has 10,000 students and offers classes like economics, management, and MIS.

Hong Kong Polytechnic University

<http://www.polyu.edu.hk/study/> (click "International Students")

Hong Kong is a fascinating metropolitan city that is in the process of changing control from Britain back to mainland China. Hong Kong Polytechnic offers a wide variety of courses in Business, Accounting, Finance, Management and Marketing.

ITESM in Mexico – 10 Mexican campuses

www.itesm.mx

No matter which campus you choose, ITESM has a lot to offer you. ITESM has classes in business like Negotiation Strategies for Mexico, Import/Export Operations, or Global Business. All of these courses and more are offered in English or Spanish depending on your language ability. Most students live with host families and enjoy cultural excursions, club sports and even local internships.

Kansai Gaidai University in Hiraka City, Japan

<http://www.kansai.gaidai.ac.jp/asp>

Located in Hirakata City, close to both Kyoto and Osaka, this program offers you a chance to examine Asia close up. This is a modern campus that with workout facilities and cultural clubs that meet weekly. Kansai Gaidai offers many courses in English, as well as Japanese language courses. Some of the courses it offers are Small Business Ventures and Human Resource Management in Japan.

Southern Cross University, Lismore, Australia

<http://www.scu.edu.au/>

This university of 5,000 students is a great place to experience Australia outside of a big-city environment and discover its true culture. SCU is in a beautiful part of Australia and is only thirty minutes from some of the best beaches in Australia. Southern Cross offers business courses like administration and management. Note: Places are limited on this exchange.

University of Blaise Pascal in Vichy, France

http://www.lacc.univ-bpclermont.fr/rubrique.php3?id_rubrique=11

Vichy, pop. 26,500, is about 30 minutes from Clermont-Ferrand and is known for its national parks and its small villages with medieval castles. This program is designed for students with little or no background in French, the International Business program is conducted in English at the Vichy campus of the University. Examples of courses are: Marketing in Europe and International Trade.

University of Cyprus

<http://www.ucy.ac.cy/goto/intere/en-US/InternalStudents.aspx>

Nestled in the Mediterranean Sea just south of Turkey lies the beautiful island of Cyprus! You can take courses in English in the Department of Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering while enjoying the interesting, mixed culture in the capital city of Nicosia. Despite being a young institution (admitting its first students in 1992), the University of Cyprus has earned the respect of the international academic community and the appreciation of Cypriot society.

University of Czech Economics in Prague, Czech Republic

<http://www.vse.cz/english>

In amazing Prague is a great program that will connect you with eastern Europe. Czech Econ offers courses in English through its Central & Eastern European Studies Program. This program offers courses in Management, Marketing and General Business.

University of Hertfordshire, Hatfield, England

<http://www.herts.ac.uk/>

Thirty minutes from London, the University of Hertfordshire gives you the best of both worlds: you'll live in an active university town with cinemas, pubs, and shopping center, but have easy access to the bustle and nightlife of London. There is a large Business school that offers a wide variety of courses in Business, Management, Accounting, Marketing and Finance. This is tuition/fee exchange.

Vaxjo University in Vaxjo, Sweden

<http://www.vxu.se/english/education/programmes>

Vaxjo, with 70,000 inhabitants, is 125 miles northwest of Copenhagen and 250 miles southwest of Stockholm. It is a charming city with forests, lakes, fountains and a 700-year-old castle. Vaxjo University has over 450 international students and has many programs that are taught in English. Students take classes like International Marketing, European Business or Swedish Culture and Society.

Zeppelin University in Friedrichshafen, Germany

http://www.zeppelin-university.de/index_eng.php

Zeppelin is located at the base of the German, Swiss and Austrian Alps. The region is brilliant in diversity—a place where hi-tech lives in harmony with a plush landscape and the ancient traditions of yesteryear. Zeppelin defines itself as an individualized, international and interdisciplinary educator of students. They offer courses in English, especially in Corporate Management and Communications.

National Taiwan Univ. of Science & Technology

<http://www-e.ntust.edu.tw/front/bin/home.phtml>

As Taiwan's first institute of technology, NTUST is a growing, prestigious university whose motto is "Precision in Work, Sincerity in Attitude." NTUST is located in the heart of downtown Taipei and offers a wide range of courses in Business Administration, Economics, Management, and Finance.

Yuan Ze, Taiwan

http://web2.yzu.edu.tw/eng_2003/

Located in the diverse city of Chung-Li, just 20 miles north of Taipei, YZU is "the youngest and most energetic university of Taiwan's Top universities"! The College of Management offers courses in English in Business Management, Accounting, and Finance while the revolutionary history of this city provides a truly unique cultural experience.

K-State Affiliations

CESP in Prague, Czech Republic

<http://nb.vse.cz/cesp/>

In amazing Prague is a great program that will connect you with eastern Europe. Czech Econ offers courses in English through its Central & Eastern European Studies Program (CESP). This program offers courses in Management, Marketing and General Business.

Deakin University in Melbourne or Geelong, Australia

<http://www.deakin.edu.au/>

Either Deakin campus will put you in southern Australia, just minutes from the beach. While Melbourne is a thriving multicultural city, Geelong is a historic port city of almost 200,000 people that is about an hour away from Melbourne. Deakin has twice won the coveted Good Universities Guide University of the Year award. They offer courses like Financial Management or Sports Marketing.

Denmark's International Study Program in Copenhagen, Denmark

<http://www.dis.dk/>

Copenhagen offers lots of culture, entertainment, cafes, transportation, and a small-town atmosphere of friendliness. DIS offers a specialized International Business & Economics semester for business students that includes integrated Copenhagen field studies

ISEP – International Student Exchange Programs

<http://www.isep.org/>

National Program that features a wide variety of majors and places to study. Exchanges include tuition, room, and board, as well as friendly and helpful program directors to ensure an easy transition in your host country! Programs are available in English and local languages.

Italy Program—CIMBA in Paderno del Grappa

<http://www.cimbaitaly.com/Undergraduate-123/Index.htm>

Study at a beautiful mountain campus in the heart of Italy. This program offers high quality, professional courses that are taught in English. Courses are offered in Business, Journalism, Economics, Communications, as well as electives like Italian language. These programs are designed to provide students with a meaningful European business and cultural experience.

Lorenzo de' Medici in Florence, Rome, Venice or Tuscany, Italy

<http://www.lorenzodemedici.it>

Study Italian language and culture in any of these four beautiful locations! LDM provides a unique cultural education experience, focused on connecting students with the local community. Regular excursions and social activities provide chances to explore the area and meet other students.

MAUI

<http://www.umsl.edu/services/abroad/maui/>

The Mid-America Universities International Program offers a wide variety of exciting, affordable programs in over two dozen European schools! Acceptance is a nomination process, sometimes requiring up to 1 year at the most limited locations. Apply early!

K-State Program Providers:

Academic Programs International (API)

<http://www.academicintl.com>

Australearn

<http://www.australearn.com>

College Consortium for International Studies (CCIS)

<http://www.ccisabroad.org>

Cultural Experiences Abroad (CEA)

<http://www.gowithcea.com>

Institute for Study Abroad (IFSA-Butler)

<http://www.ifsabutler.org>

International Studies Abroad (ISA)

<http://www.studiesabroad.com>

USAC

<http://www.usac.unr.edu>

World Endeavors

<http://www.worldendeavors.org>

These are just a few of your options.

Many more choices are out there, especially if you want to study your concentration area or simply fulfill your electives and other requirements.

Come to the Office of International Programs to learn about more opportunities.