

Join Us for a Celebration of Entrepreneurship

Plan now to attend one or all the events. Reservations are required for the luncheon, but there is no charge for the talks or workshop sessions. For more information, visit www.k-state.edu/entrepreneurship

The Center for the Advancement of Entrepreneurship welcomes

Donald F. Kuratko, Ph.D.

Jack M. Gill Chair of Entrepreneurship, Indiana University to campus to speak about entrepreneurship. Dr. Kuratko is considered a prominent scholar and national leader in the field of entrepreneurship.

Wednesday, April 8 Hemisphere Room, Hale Library, 3:00 – 4:30 p.m.

“Creating the Entrepreneurial Campus for the 21st Century”

Dr. Kuratko will share his experiences and insights about what it takes for creating an entrepreneurial university with faculty and staff. He uses his experiences at Indiana University to illustrate paths for integrating entrepreneurship and entrepreneurial thinking across the university.

Thursday, April 9 Big 12 Room, K-State Student Union, 10:00 – 11:30 a.m.

“The Entrepreneurial Imperative”

Why entrepreneurship? Why now? Dr. Kuratko talks about why today’s rough economic times necessitate entrepreneurial thinking and action. Students, faculty, staff and community members contemplating entrepreneurial action are welcome.

Friday, April 10 Alumni Center B and C Ballroom, 8:30 – 11:15 a.m.

Entrepreneurship Mini-Workshop for K-State students, faculty and staff

Sessions will cover the “Nuts & Bolts” of managing intellectual property at K-State as well as a panel discussion from successful faculty entrepreneurs at K-State.

Sixth Annual Luncheon

K-State Spotlight on Intellectual Property

Alumni Center A and D Ballroom, 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Featured Speaker Jeffrey S. Hornsby, Ph.D.

Sustaining Organizational Entrepreneurship

Jack Vanier Chair of Innovation and Entrepreneurship; Founding Director, K-State Center for the Advancement of Entrepreneurship

Lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m. Cost for students $15, all other guests $20.

Please email tech.transfer@ksu.edu or call 785-532-5720 for reservations.

RSVP by April 6, 2009. Reservations are required. No tickets will be distributed.

Luncheon hosted by the KSU Research Foundation, KSU Foundation, K-State Alumni Association and Manhattan Area Chamber of Commerce