Theatre and Dance Season 2016-17

The Glass Menagerie

by Tennessee Williams

Sept. 29-Oct. 9, The Purple Masque Theatre

Amanda Wingfield is a faded remnant of Southern gentility who lives in poverty with her son, Tom, and daughter, Laura. Amanda struggles to give meaning and direction to her life and to the lives of her children. Tom and Laura attempt to escape reality through their own distractions and illusions. The family and their inner worlds are shaken by a dinner guest.

THE ROCKY HORROR SHOW

by Richard O'Brien

Oct. 27-Nov. 6, Mark A. Chapman Theatre

Set amidst the background of campy sci-fi and b-movies, Brad and Janet become stranded at the home of transvestite-scientist, Dr. Frank N. Furter as he unveils and plays with his newest creation — Rocky. Guaranteed to be a night full of song, dance and audience participation.

CONTAINS ADULT LANGUAGE AND SEXUAL CONTENT

WinterDance '16

Dec. 1-3, Mark A. Chapman Theatre

Join us this holiday season as we present a showcase of exciting dance styles, including jazz, tap, modern and African dance. Talented K-State students will perform original pieces choreographed by faculty.

Love & Information

by Caryl Churchill

Feb. 2-12, The Purple Masque Theatre

Someone sneezes. Someone can't get a signal. Someone won't answer the door. Someone put an elephant on the stairs. Someone's not ready to talk. Someone is her brother's mother. Someone hates irrational numbers. Someone told the police. Someone's never felt like this before. Experience love in the information age.

The Magic Flute

by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

March 9-12, McCain Auditorium

Mozart's last opera is set in a mythical land between the sun and the moon. In this amusing tale, the young and sensible Prince Tamino travels to the temple of the Sarastro to save Pamina. Along his magical journey he meets the comical Papageno, the three muses, the spirits, and the fabled Queen of the Night. Tamino gets through one hurdle after another with the help of an enchanted flute.

Theatre and Dance Season 2016-17

SpringDance '17

March 31-April 1, McCain Auditorium

Celebrate the arrival of spring with K-State Dance through a showcase of exciting dance styles, including jazz, tap, modern and African dance. Talented K-State students will perform original pieces choreographed by faculty.

Unity (1918)

by Kevin Kerr

Apr. 20-30, Mark A. Chapman Theatre

In the fall of 1918, a world ravaged by four years of war was suddenly hit by a mysterious and deadly plague: the Spanish flu. The illness hit hardest among people healthy, strong and in the prime of their lives, advancing rapidly. As fear of the dreaded illness begins to fill the town of Unity with paranoia, drastic measures are taken.

Bug

by Tracy Letts

Nov. 10-13, The Purple Masque Theatre

Set in a seedy Oklahoma City motel room, the play centers on the meeting between Agnes, a divorced waitress with a fondness for cocaine and isolation, and Peter, a soft-spoken Gulf War drifter. Directed by student, Chase Rossman.

Boy Gets Girl

by Rebecca Gilman

Apr. 6-9, The Purple Masque Theatre

What begins as a blind date grows into a terrifying obsession that threatens New York reporter Theresa Bedell's very existence. Directed by student, Aubrey Mann.

New in 2016: The K-State Theatre and Dance Box Office

K-State Theatre and Dance productions are foremost educational endeavors. To that end, we sought to provide an opportunity to our students in box office operations while simultaneously making our productions affordable, accessible and convenient to our patrons. The result is an independent box office featuring:

- Accessibility: Tickets available 24/7 online.
- Affordability: The price is what you pay — sales tax included. No additional convenience fees.
- Convenience: Print-at-home tickets and scannable e-tickets on mobile devices.
- Also: The return of reserved seating for mainstage shows.
