

ALL WESLEY RETREAT

SPEAKER & WORSHIP LEADER

GUEST SPEAKER - LEONARD SWEET

Len is one of the church's most important and provocative thinkers. He is a world renowned theologian, writer, speaker, and a former campus minister. "No church leader understands better how to navigate the seas of the 21st century."

WORSHIP LEADER - ADAM WHEATLEY

Adam has a heart to lead worship and share songs about the spiritual lessons God teaches him along the way. "Each song I write serves as a reminder of his love and the promises he gives us, whether it's through his provision or presence. The way that plays out in our lives is simple—we love him back and we love others."

WORKSHOP LEADERS

BUZ BARLOW: is a respected lawyer and committed Christian. Buz has defended the downtrodden and has brought a message of hope and encouragement to the third world. He has been recognized for his unselfish gifts of time, talent and treasure by a number of philanthropies including the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Happy Hill Farm, the American Indian Science & Engineering Society, Marquette University and the University of Wisconsin.

BRITTANY BURROWS: is a student at Perkins School of Theology and felt called to do mission work for a year after graduating from the University of North Texas. She served as a teacher and caregiver in an orphanage in the Republic of Congo in 2008-2009. Brittany will be offering a workshop on Volunteers in Missions (VIM) service in Africa and how to become VIM missionary.

JONATHAN GRACE: Jonathan and his housemates will be talking about living in a Christian Community in a new Monastic model. He is a student at Perkins School of Theology and serves at City Square, a homeless outreach center.

REV. JEREMY BASSETT: is a native of South Africa and currently serves as the director of Volunteers in Mission (VIM) in the Oklahoma Annual Conference. Jeremy is passionate about God's mission in the world through the church of Jesus Christ, and absolutely committed to the belief that each congregation is called to be, and can effectively be, the expression of God's love to the world. He is especially committed to helping his native land respond to the devastation caused by HIV/AIDS.

SARAH BURKHOLDER: is a recent graduate from Purdue Wesley and is living in one of the Epworth Houses in Dallas, a missional monastery house. She has discovered that working with refugees in the US is what she's called to do. She is articulate, passionate and you will love her!

REV. BRIDGETTE YOUNG: is Assistant General Secretary for Campus Ministry and College Chaplaincy. She works with campus ministers and college chaplains providing support, resources, networking, and continuing education. She trains annual conference Boards of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, and serves as a consultant to annual conferences, local churches and campus ministry groups.

DANIEL CANIFAX: is the director of Project Transformation. Project Transformation engages young adults in purposeful leadership and ministry by building life-impacting relationships, serving children and families, and connecting churches to under-served communities.
