Policy and Procedures Manual

Welcome to the official Kansas State University Policies and Procedures Manual. This manual was created by the university administration and various campus offices to provide a guide to the university policies and procedures. This manual is not available in a printed format as it is constantly being updated. Therefore, the policies and procedures listed here are the latest available. Shown below are the links to the Table of Contents for the Policies and Procedures Manual and what's new or the latest changes made to the manual.

What's New

Questions relating to the information in each chapter of the Policies and Procedures Manual should be directed to the office issuing the chapter and that information is usually located at the end of each chapter. Questions relating to the overall KSU Policies and Procedures Manual including the addition of new chapters should be directed to the Internal Audit Office, e-mail (internalaudit@ksu.edu), telephone number 785-532-7308.
Branding K-State’s website

• User Experience
  – Consistent navigation key to user experience
  – Consistent look and feel add to ease of navigation
  – Audience doesn’t recognize hierarchy boundaries
  – We are all “K-State”
  – Individuality and strength is imagery and content
    • Focus on professional imagery
    • High-quality, current information
Branding K-State’s website

The most effective way to accomplish this for any large organization is through a Content Management System (CMS)
Housing and Dining Services

Has Your Voice Been Heard?

If you're a sophomore, junior or senior living in one of our residence halls, Housing and Dining Services invites you to participate in the Residence Life Diversity Survey. The purpose of this survey is to measure students' attitudes, behaviors and residence life experiences relative to multiculturalism.

A questionnaire will be sent to you via email Monday, Sept. 17. Should you choose to take part, please answer the questions as openly as possible. We predict this survey will be an interesting experience that contributes to a better understanding of diversity issues and multiculturalism within the residence halls at K-State. There are no risks associated with your participation, though it may increase your awareness about your feelings toward diversity.

You will need approximately 15 to 20 minutes to complete the questionnaire. All participants will receive a $1 coupon to JP's Sports Grill when the survey process has fully concluded, and will be entered into a random drawing for either a Kindle, four tickets to a K-State football game or other great prizes.

Thank you in advance for your time and willingness to complete this survey. You may choose to withdraw at any time as you see fit, however the return of your questionnaire is essential to provide accurate results as our students are our future leaders.

College of Arts and Sciences

General Introduction
At the heart of every great university is a college that serves as its academic center. The College of Arts and Sciences is the intellectual heart of Kansas State University.

The College of Arts and Sciences contains more than 20 departments and offers a number of special programs and secondary majors. With more than 7,000 students, it has the largest enrollment of any K-State college. It also offers approximately 85 percent of all freshman courses and 65 percent of all credits taught. More.

Welcome from the Director

Welcome to the homepage for the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance (MTD) at Kansas State University. These are exciting times for the performing arts at K-State! On June 20, 2012 the Kansas Board of Regents voted to grant "school status" to the disciplines of music, theatre and dance at the university. The school resides in the College of Arts and Sciences under the visionary leadership of Dean Peter Dorhout.

MTD is home to approximately 500 majors/minors, 50 faculty, and 4 administrative support staff. However, more than 4,000 non-majors (representing every department and college at the university) participate in the performing arts at K-State! Hundreds of events are scheduled each year, the vast majority of which are free and open to the public. Please come see the product of our collective efforts presented in McCain Auditorium, Nichols Theatre, All Faiths Chapel, Purple Masque Theatre, and...
