

2011 Empty Bowls

Help those who are hungry.
Participate in the 7th Annual Manhattan Empty Bowls project.

♥ Will you make a bowl for hunger?

You can make a bowl to donate! Attend the Empty Bowls Spinathon at the MAC (Manhattan Arts Center 1520 Poyntz)

Wednesday, March 9, Sunday, March 13, Wednesday, March 16.

Each night, materials and assistance are provided for a $5 donation. 6:00 pm-9:00 pm.

♥ Will you buy a bowl for hunger?

The People's Grocery on 17th and Ft. Riley Blvd. will be selling the bowls this year starting on Friday, April 1st.

▶ 100% of the proceeds benefit local soup kitchens ◀

♥ Will you fill a bowl for hunger?

Fill your brand new 2011 purchased Empty Bowl with free soup!

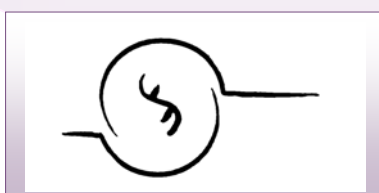

Bring your new 2011 empty bowl to Einstein Bros. Bagels inside Hale Library at KSU
On SOUP DATE! Date, Time, and Directions will be given with your new bowl.

For complete information, including information on how to make & donate a bowl, and the National Empty Bowl Project call the K-State Women's Center at 785.532.6444 or www.ksu.edu/womenscenter

*The KSU Women's Center organizes this event with awesome support from other organizations, individuals, and businesses, (Special Thanks to Texas Star Café, an instrumental Soup Donor for 5 years!)
Thanks to: KSU Potter's Guild, The Manhattan Arts Center, Manhattan High School Ceramic Students, KSU Campaign For Nonviolence, W.A.R. Student Group, Einstein Bros. Bagels and People's Grocery.*

Need more Art? Visit the Strecker-Nelson Gallery Downtown on Poyntz.

Need Natural Foods? Visit the People's Grocery
523 S 17th Street (785) 539-4811