

2007 CNV Rally and Movies on the Grass

The 2007 CNV Fall Nonviolence Rally will be held Sunday, August 26 from 6:30-8 p.m. Social justice/nonviolence/health-related information will be set up along the sidewalk from the KSU Student Union to the Coffman Commons in front of Hale Library.

Concurrent with the Rally, from 6-8 p.m. on Bosco Plaza the Movies on the Grass Program will be staging a concert by the band AfroReggae prior to the free screening of the film "Favela Rising".

About 8 p.m. after the band is done and before the movie starts, there will be a very brief presentation of the annual "Be The Change" Award, this year honoring the seven volunteer yoga facilitators who have contributed their time and energy to offer free Noontime Yoga here at KSU. They are: Emily Ragan, David Mitchell, CP Ward, Joyce Yagerline, Sue Brown, Diana Knox and Carol Gould.

The 2008 Movies on the Grass films will be shown outside on Coffman Commons, as always; with music and prizes before the film.

MOG films:

August 19: "Who Killed the Electric Car?"

August 26: "Favela Rising"

September 9: "Maxed Out"

September 16: "Yesterday"

For more information, please check out:

* The CNV website about the Rally: <http://www.ksu.edu/nonviolence> AND * the Movies on the Grass website: <http>